The 1998
University Festival
Our Creative Community

October 6, 1998

Tuesday, October 6, 1998 was a day that brought the community of this University together. It accomplished this by celebrating the diversity of knowledge, interests and ideas that exist on campus. The activities replaced classes for the day so everyone would have the opportunity to attend.

The day began at 8:45 am with a welcome by Drs. Karen Schmid and Lainey Jenks - co chairs of the festival. This was followed by common time for the various departments to hold receptions. The morning and afternoon sessions were filled with a variety of events. Many speakers held seminars on issues such as creating web pages, editing scholarly journals, religion, ethics, ideas in teaching and diversity. Many different people came together to be a part of the festival and celebrate our creative community. There was also a time for students and faculty to interact, both at the various seminars held throughout the day, and at the luncheon which was held in between the sessions.

Academic Buildings

Philips Memorial building has been under construction the past year, but by the time it is finished, it will be well worth the wait. The building was erected in 1925 in place of Dr. George Morris Philips's home, Green Gables. Dr. Philips, Principal of West Chester State Normal School for 40 years, was well known on and off campus. We can't wait for the construction to be completed. Students miss the whispering arches and trying to see the ghost that haunts the building. And Philips will once again stand as the gateway to the University.

Many of the out-of-class activities take place in Sykes Student Union. Most of the student activities take place in this building along with any guest speakers, concerts, and expos. Most of the student organizations are located here. Sykes is like a second home for commuters and students who have long breaks between classes. The building also includes a gym, movie theatre, dining areas, meeting rooms, lounges, a bookstore, and who can forget the nice, comfortable couches on the third floor!

Lawrence Center is the main dining area for students who live on campus and many visitors. Who can forget when the dining hall tries to spice things up with those theme nights at dinner? Lawrence also houses the Career Development Center, Post Office, Tutoring Center, Counseling Center, and Women's Center. Lawrence is the place to go for almost all your needs.

Anderson Hall was built in 1946 and named after Dr. Robert Anderson, both an alumnus and a teacher. This building is home to the Academic Computing Center. Since it does have the most classrooms on campus, Anderson is the building for the mathematics and computer science departments along with various other classes.

Mitchell Hall is where you can find some awesome art work by our university's students. These artistically inclined students have some great opportunities to show what they can do. Mitchell offers them an art gallery, studios, and plenty of classrooms. These students can get really creative and also learn a lot from some of the guest artists that display their work in the building.

The Francis Harvey Green Library is a bedroom to some students here at the University. This building is so huge that you could almost get lost in it. Because of the size of the building it houses so much information! There are thousands of books, microfilms and fiche, Internet connections, and reference areas. But even with all this material found in one location, they don't have everything. However, they can almost always get it for you with their Inter-Library Loan Service.

Even though Ruby Jones Hall was built in 1899, the building didn't get its name until later. It was named after the first African-American faculty member who taught at the University from 1961-1972. Students seem to really enjoy this building. Someone can always be found relaxing on the steps and socializing around the building. Students say it has a homey feeling.

When West Chester State Normal School began, Old Main Hall housed faculty and students, a chapel, a museum, a laboratory, and lecture rooms. As time went on, a kitchen, dining room, and boiler room were added. Then in 1974, Main Hall replaced Old Main and is the building we see today. Everyone should know this building because it houses one-third of all the school's classes.

Academic Buildings

The Old Library houses the Anthropology, Sociology, and Graduate Studies offices; however, it was the original library for West Chester University. Built in 1902, it served as the library until 1966. There are always people standing around and socializing in front of these steps. It almost seems as though the steps draw you in. Walking into this building makes you feel like you are a part of the original University.

Swope Hall is another building which is a home for many students. For the music majors, it seems as though maybe their dorm, apartment, or house is really their second home. Swope not only houses the music program, but it is also the location for many wonderful recitals and performances. These recitals allow the music majors to show off what their hard work and dedication can do.

The South Campus Complex is where you can find the Health and P.E. building, which is known for its teaching, performance, and research facilities. When you are tired of studying and want to kick back and watch some action, the south campus sports fields are the places to go. John A. Farrell stadium, tennis courts, and other sports fields surround the complex.

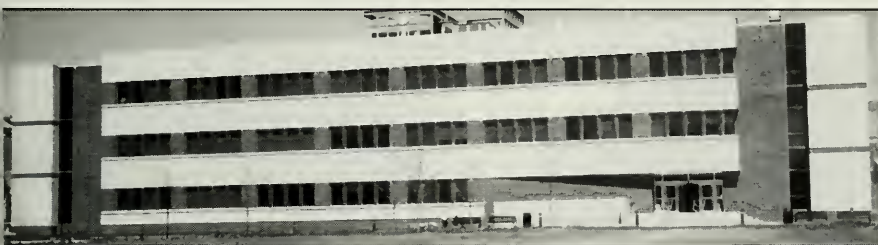

Recitation Hall is the home for education majors. The building was erected in 1892 as a dormitory and is one of the oldest buildings on campus. It has eight teacher education programs and nine master degree programs in seven areas of study. Recitation was also one of three buildings which was dressed in a green stone called serpentine, found in a local quarry. This stone was used on only the finer houses in the community.

Ehringer Gym was the main gymnasium for the University until the South Campus Complex was constructed. Now the building is used as an open gym for the students and houses most of the intramural sports teams. Ehringer Gym is located adjacent to the Hollinger Field House. The Field House includes a weight room, courts, an indoor track and a pool.

Farrell Stadium houses the University's football games. The stadium is home to the football team, cheerleaders, track team, and many others. The band and color guard use this stadium also. They host high school band competitions and give performances of their own for the community. Also, the stadium was once the home of the Philadelphia Eagles summer camp in 1995.

Boucher Hall, which is actually Phase Four of the Schmucker Science Center, holds various lecture halls, laboratories, and classrooms. Boucher is also one of the newest additions to the University, which was built back in 1996.

There are 62 academic buildings which comprise over 2.4 million square feet. These buildings are a mixture of Nineteenth Century, Collegiate Gothic, and Contemporary architecture styles. West Chester University has come a long way since it began in 1871 as the West Chester State Normal School; things were a lot different back then. In 1874 permission from the President of the University was needed to do things such as light a candle or even walk into town. In 1875 lights had to be out by 10pm. In 1892 a female student was allowed to reside with a family in the community in exchange for her services as a maid or helper for room and board. Dormitories were single sex until 1923 when females were finally allowed to move into the first floor of Wayne Hall. Lastly in 1938 there were boundaries set for women students and mixed couples after 6pm to prevent inappropriate behavior.

Studying

Ahhh . . . studying!! The key to success. Who can forget the countless hours spent every week cramming for those tests, or the all-nighters to make the grade? When the weather is nice, it is not uncommon to see many students sitting outside all over campus. The problem is that when the weather is nice, it becomes very difficult to focus your attention on studying. However, in the end it is all worth it.

“If A=success, then the formula is $A=x+y+z$: where x is work, y is play, and z is keep your mouth shut.”

Studying, the key to success, can also involve a lot of stress. The worst time to study though is during finals. At first things seem to be getting worse, but you have to study if you want to pass the course. Everyone is ready to go home for a while, but you have to put in the extra mile. Deadlines seemed so far away, but now things are due today. When you start to freak out you can always call up a friend to hang out. Even when you have a lot to get done, you can still take short breaks to have some fun.

Transportation

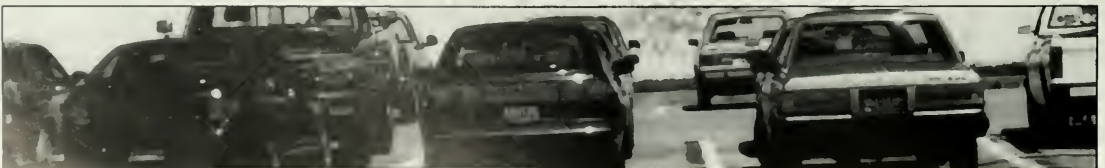

As many students know, transportation is one of the hassles that is dealt with around campus in many ways. Everyone has their own way of getting around campus, but as you can guess some things work better than others. When walking just won't do, bikes are the next best thing. Cars are great to have; parking the cars is another issue. For students living on South Campus, the bus is their only means to get to North for classes. It is a nice service, but it means getting up a half hour earlier to make it to class.

— Jaime Davis

You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose."

— Dr. Seuss

Driving and parking always seem to be a problem on campus; but as many are finding out, there are other means of transportation. Some people walk, others take the bus and the rest ride their bikes. Driving is the most relaxing, but that's only relaxing until you get to the parking lots and meters. So, the next best thing is to take the bus or get a little exercise. And the worst thing about driving is when you get out of class to find a nice little yellow paper on your windshield from either the borough or public safety.

Job Fair

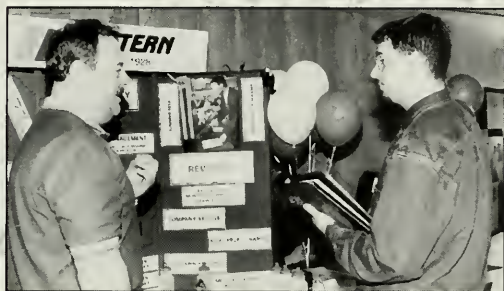

"Choose a job you love, and you never have to work a day in your life."
— Confucius

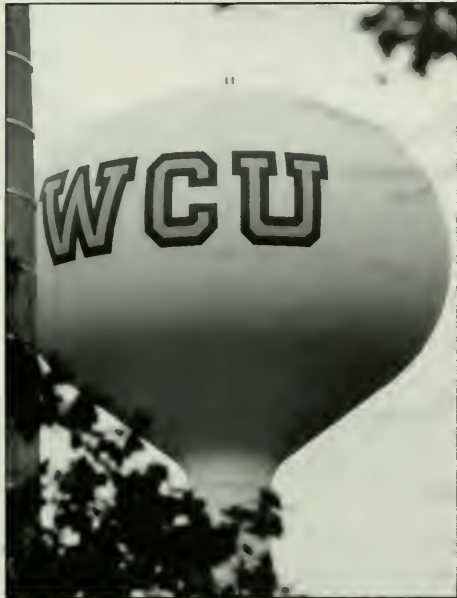

The West Chester University Job Fair was a great success. Many people turned out for the knowledge and experience about jobs available in their field. They were able to talk to real employers and businesses about what was needed to work for them. Some students were able to get their resumes circulating and gain some information in order to improve their resumes for a job in the company of their choice. This was a great experience for the seniors. Since the seniors are graduating and have to go out and find a job, this Job Fair helped them to see what was best suited for them. The representatives that were present talked about such things as what should be included in your resume, how to act and present yourself during an interview, and even how to fill out applications and resumes in a professional manner.

Student Life

Residence Halls

...Our home away from home

— Sanderson Hall
Sanderson Hall was named after Christian C. Sanderson, an alumnus of West Chester University; writer, historian, artist and teacher. Sanderson Hall's nine floors consists of coed and single sex floors. Sanderson Quad has a lighted volleyball and basketball court.

Ramsey Hall

Ramsey Hall is named for Dorothy Ramsey, who was an English professor for 33 years at West Chester University. Ramsey is a coed hall, housing approximately 400 students. On the first floor is the lounge which provides students with a kitchen, a study room, and various game tables.

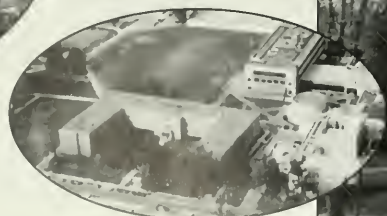

Tyson Hall

Tyson Hall is named after S. Elizabeth Tyson, pioneer of West Chester University's Speech Clinic. Tyson Hall houses approximately 450 male and female students. On the first floor, you will find the vending area and the recreational lounge with a ping-pong and pool table.

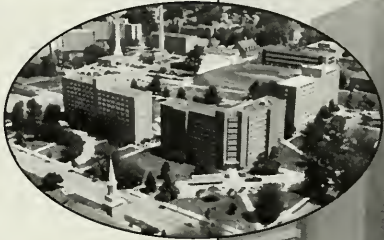

Killinger Hall

Named in honor of Glenn Killinger, former Dean of Men and football coach, Killinger hall houses approximately 300 students. Its "U" shaped design helps to foster the 24-hour quiet environment. The third floor houses WCU's Honor and Pre-Med Program students.

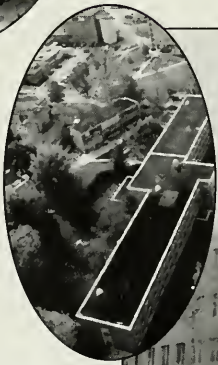

↑ Schmidt Hall
 Schmidt Hall was named after Gertrude K. Schmidt, who initiated the music program at West Chester University. Schmidt is coed and houses approximately 400 students. The beautiful bricked double lounge on the first floor contains the vending area, TV, VCR, ping-pong and pool table and the kitchen.

↑ Wayne Hall
 Wayne Hall houses approximately 350 male and female students in six of its nine floors. Named for General Anthony Wayne, who served with George Washington in the Revolutionary War. Wayne Hall has a large recreational lounge complete with a ping-pong and pool table. Wayne Hall is also home to the Wellness Center, PACE, and the Health Center.

↑ McCarthy Hall
 Named after Grace D. McCarthy, the first Dean of Women, McCarthy Hall is the only women's residence hall, housing approximately 250 women. WCU's Children's Center is located in McCarthy's basement, and provides an excellent opportunity for WCU students to learn teaching skills in working with small children.

↑ Goshen Hall
 Goshen Hall is a "Y" shaped building, with all three wings converging in a central lounge or lobby area on all seven floors. Approximately 450 students reside in this residence hall, which is named for a former Psychology Chair and public education specialist, Anne M. Goshen. Goshen Hall is coed, however its floors house a combination of single-sex and coed wings.

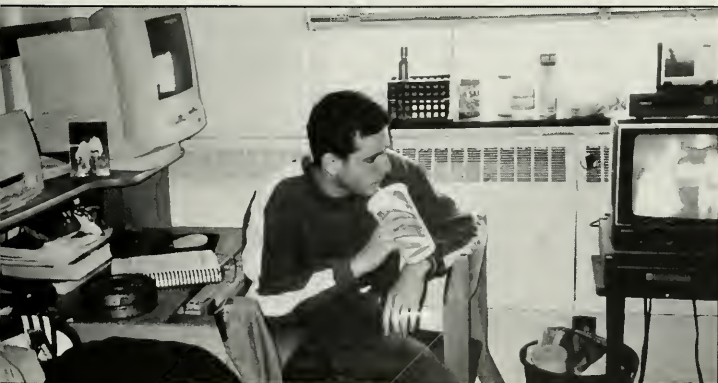

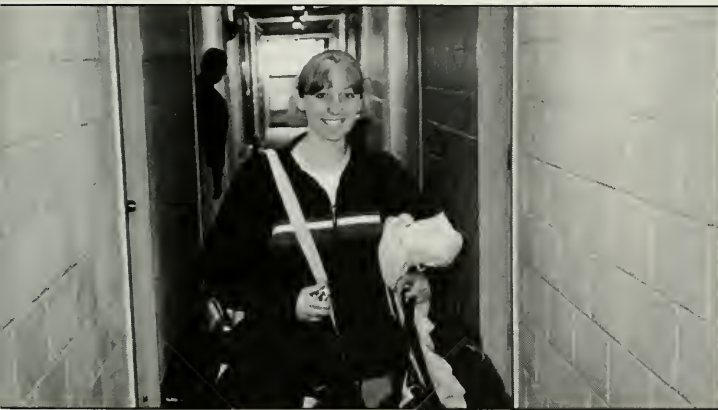

North Campus

...life in the dorms

The first place all of us non-commuters live are the dorms, more appropriately called the residence halls. A place we will never forget. Sharing a room roughly equal to the size of a cardboard box with your roommate(s), cramming all of your belongings into a dresser, a desk, and a closet, decorating your door and your walls to make it feel somewhat like home. From the bathrooms (don't forget to yell flush!) to the announcements (It is now 8pm, please enter and exit through the front doors only...), we will always remember our first living experience in the dorms at college.

— Michelle P. Kee

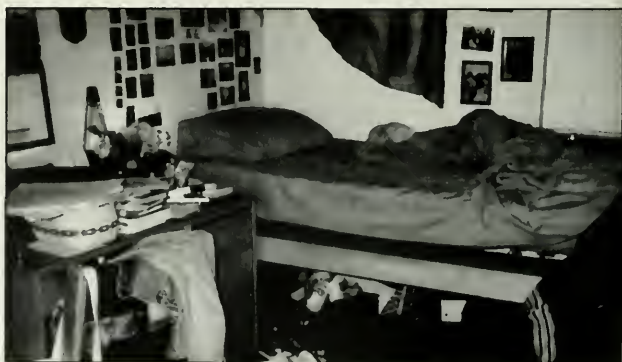

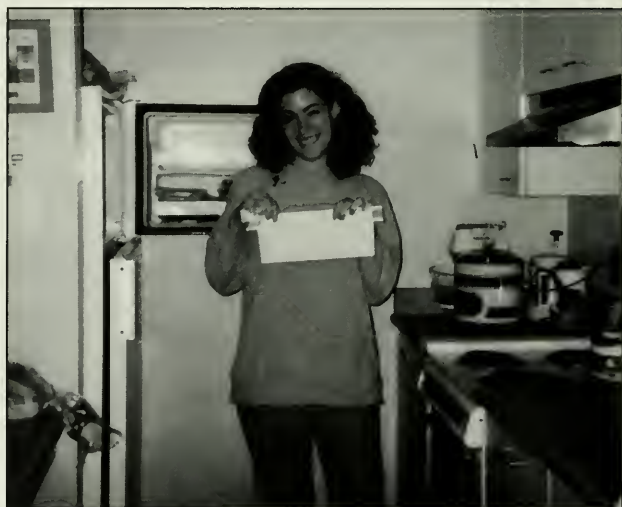

South Campus

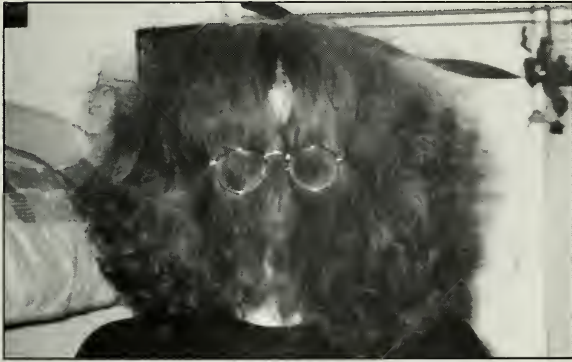

...life in the apartments

When a resident student wishes to remain living on-campus, but can't bear to spend another minute in the dorms, the next available option is the south campus housing complex. The apartments at south campus are either two or three story buildings. Each of these buildings accommodates between 39 and 49 students in eight or ten apartments. Each apartment houses four or five students and contains a living room, full kitchen, and bathroom.

Although the fire alarm definitely goes off more than in the dorms - some college students just don't know how to cook - living down south campus definitely has its perks. All the conveniences of an off-campus apartment without having to pay the monthly bills for water and electric. (It's already included in your tuition.) And of course, the memories.

— Michelle P. Kee

Free Time

...the time to be with fellow friends

A break between classes to grab something to eat. An evening of studying and catching up on homework. A day of working to earn money to pay for school. A weekend to relax and spend time with friends. Whether it be a few minutes or a few days, free time is always something for a college student to look forward to. The time spent in classes seems to be never ending and a nice break is always needed. No matter how we spend it, we will always look forward to that free time. It is what keeps us sane during our long college days.

— Michelle P. Kee

West Chester

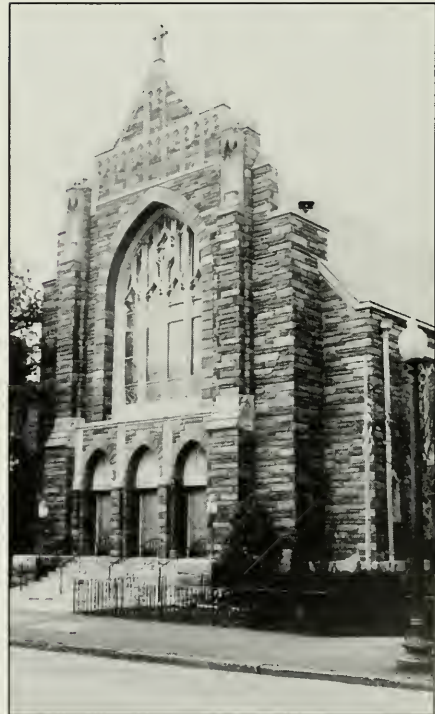

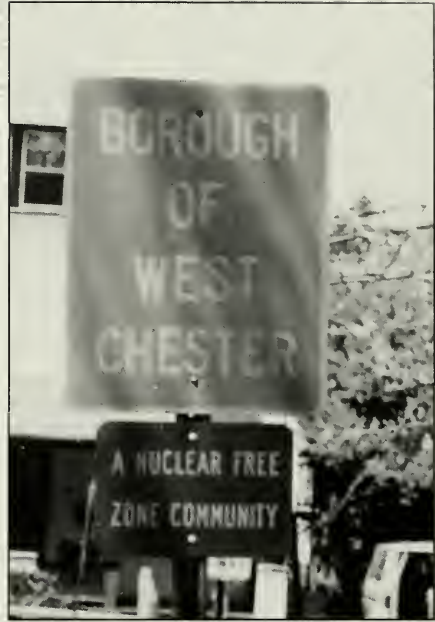

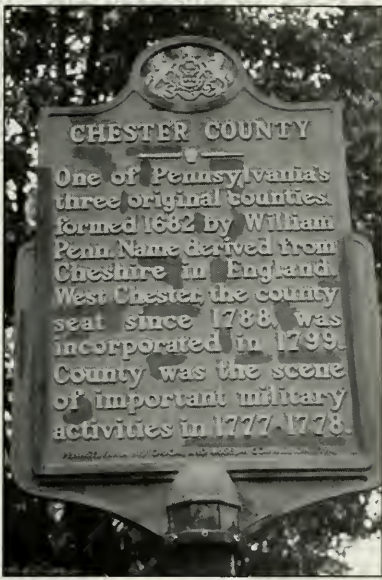

...in and around the city

The beautiful town of West Chester is nestled in the rolling hills of Chester County. West Chester is conveniently located a half-hour from Philadelphia, and is also a short drive to the Poconos and the beach. Its central location and cultural opportunities offer students a needed supplement to college life.

The community of West Chester has provided the students of West Chester University with many quaint shops, unique restaurants, and various forms of entertainment. We can never forget the many times we walked into town to go shopping or visit a coffee shop. Or the many evenings we spent at the Rat or 15 North. We will never forget the charming little town surrounding the place we called home.

— Michelle P. Kee

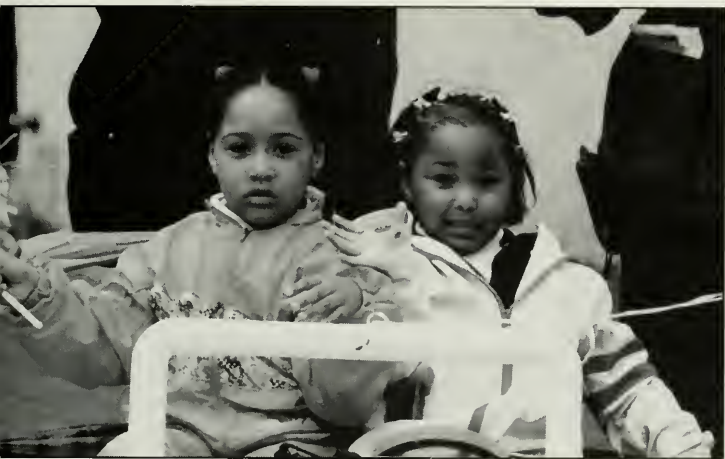

West Chester

...celebrates 200 years

From Buffalo Bill Cody to Greek revival buildings to visits by Sir Alexander Fleming, the inventor of penicillin, West Chester has an interesting history. Its eighteenth century architecture shows through in the brick sidewalks and town houses, carriage lamps, and green serpentine buildings. Incorporated as a borough in 1799, this once Quaker village is now a beautiful Victorian community. The rustic setting will grab your attention at first glance, and remain with you wherever you may roam.

— Michelle P. Kee

Extra time; we all have a little bit now and then. What we do with that time is purely up to us. Events around campus and the community help us to decide how we are going to spend that little bit of extra time. Whether it is Homecoming, Brian's Run, or the Battle of the Bands, events play an important role of how we spend our non-academic hours at WCU.

Move In Day

The time has finally arrived; packing up the family car, seeing how much stuff will fit in the family car, and heading off to WCU. For some, move in day is the first day of an adventure in living away from home; for others, it's a time to return to college life and see old friends. Move in day always presents the challenge of finding a place to park, unload, and see how many trips it takes to get all of our belongings into the dorm room and finding a home for it all. But never fear, there's extra hands around to help get your things into the elevator or carry it up the stairs. When the day is done, you see your family off and begin another year at WCU.

Leadership Conference

"Finding Your Leadership"

A sign complete with balloons proclaiming where to register for the 13th Annual Student Leadership Conference.

— One of the ways that the keynote speaker showed students how to be a good leader is to explain directions fully. He further explained by having someone tell him step by step how to make a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. This wasn't as easy as you may think!

— Charlie Warner, the director of Greek Life and Student Organizations was the person in charge of the 13th Annual Student Leadership Conference.

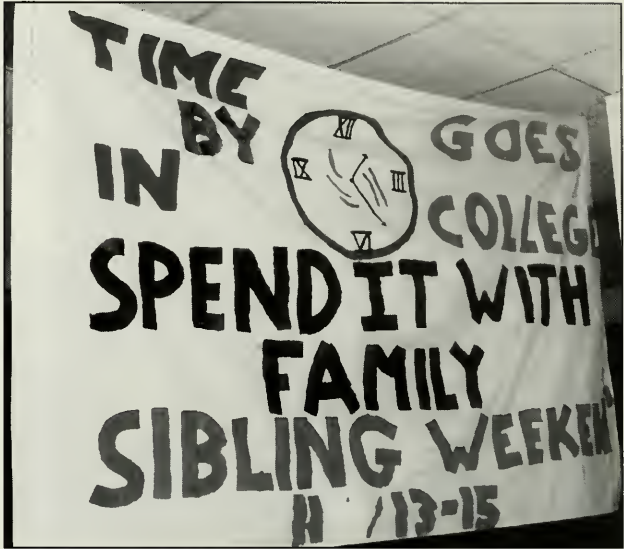

The theme of the 13th Annual Leadership Conference, which was held on October 2nd and 3rd, 1998, was "Finding Your LeaderSHIP." The conference kicked off with a dinner on Friday night at 6:15pm; this was to thank the various emerging and seasoned student leaders on the West Chester University campus. Saturday began with a continental breakfast, followed by Session 1, with topics covering motivation, creativity, fund and friend raising, and public relations. The students then came together for the keynote address, where Charlie Warner, Director of Greek Life and Student Organizations, and Dr. Adler, welcomed the students for coming and thanked them for their leadership service to the university. The keynote speaker was Rick Barnes, the Director of Student Organization Services at Texas Christian University. The keynote address was followed by lunch, and then students attended two more sessions, which covered the following topics: decision making skills and responsibility, leadership, community service, multicultural leadership, effective people, leadership skills, and motivation. Students then came together for the closing of the conference, having learned a lot more about leadership, and each student who attended received a certificate.

Sibling Weekend

Family: sometimes you can't live with them; other times you can't live without them. At some point in time - although we may not want to admit it - we miss them dearly. Sibling weekend gives us a chance to see our family and at the same time, give our little brother or sister a small slice of college life.

Brian's Run

December 6, 1998

On an unseasonably warm December day, approximately 3000 runners ran in the 21st Annual Brian's Run. Brian's Run was first started in 1978 to help raise funds for Brian Bratcher, a football player for West Chester Henderson High School who was paralyzed in a scrimmage game. The purpose of the race is to raise money for specifically chosen disabled persons from the community. Brian's Run '98 raised over $30,000 to benefit the disabled. The race was recently recognized by Runner's World Magazine as one of the "100 Great Races for 1998." This year's winners were Rachis Razguaoui of Morocco and Misti Demko of Hershey in the 10K category.

Spring Break

Fun in the Sun

As spring break finally arrives in early March, most West Chester University students head away from the good old state of Pennsylvania. Whether it be a road trip to South Carolina or an airplane ride to the Bahamas, many students spend spring break with the hope of finding warmer climates.

But not everyone travels far during spring break. Others spend the week working to earn money, catching up on school work, spending quality time with friends and family, and just plain relaxing at home.

Spring Break is a much needed time for rest and relaxation, for students as well as teachers. Whatever you did on your spring break, I hope the time was enjoyable.

Presidential Gala

Safari Splendor

This year marked the 16th year for West Chester University's Presidential Scholarship Community Gala. The idea for the Scholarship Gala was initiated in 1983 by a small group of interested individuals during the presidency of Dr. Ken Perrin. Today, the Gala continues to develop and grow to new levels under the leadership of the university's president Dr. Madeleine Wing Adler.

The event first started as a small dinner, then developed into a formal reception and performance format, and is currently a black tie dinner dance that features a local band.

The 1998-99 recipients were: Angela L. Dimmick, Mark P. Eid, Julianne H. Lee, and Michael P. McClain.

Civility Awareness Day

THE PEACE POLE PROJECT

The Peace Pole Project originated through a Rotary club in Australia in 1995. The intention of the project was to develop awareness of the need to create peace in our communities and the poles were usually made out of four-sided cedar wood posts and on each side the message "Let Peace Prevail" was carved in a different language, including a side for animal footprints! There are more than 70,000 of these poles around the world. As far as I know, this is the first Peace Pole like this in Pennsylvania. The Social Work Club initiated this project and is a committed co-sponsor of this project and is linking the creation of Peace Poles to fundraising activities to build playgrounds in urban areas where there are no safe play areas for kids. The West Chester Art Department conceptualized and executed the project under the direction of John Baker and the department's Art Association. Other co-sponsors of this project include the University Forum, the Greater West Chester Sunrise Rotary Club with Henry Karasch and the Center for a Peaceful Community with Professor Charlotte Bartlett.

Civility Awareness Day, held at West Chester University on February 23, 1999, is a day dedicated to creating awareness of civil behavior. Students from WCU came up with various ways to promote civil behavior between other students and the community. As part of Civility Day, students and faculty members from campus were encouraged to paint on the Peace Pole. This Peace Pole is the first of its kind in Pennsylvania. Its intention was to create awareness in communities for peace.

Banana Day

April 20, 1999

*P*icture a world where a gorilla runs across campus and bananas are being handed out everywhere. Has WCU been taken over by the planet of the apes? No, it's Banana Day. Founded in 1996, the purpose of Banana Day is to promote fun, unity, and diversity within the campus and community, involvement, and health awareness. West Chester mayor Clifford DeBaptiste liked the idea so much that he declared Banana Day for the entire borough. About 7,000 bananas were distributed outside Main Hall, Ehringer Gym, Lawrence, and in front of Sykes.

Spring Weekend

April 16-18, 1999

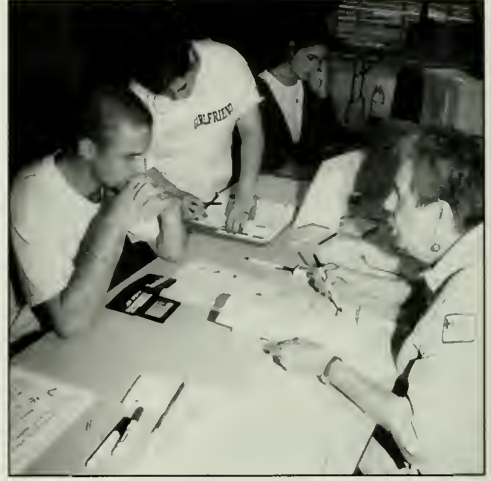

Spring Weekend, co-sponsored by CAOS and RHA, is a chance for students to take a break from their studies. On Friday, about 175 students attended the semi-formal. The theme was "Midnight Magic," entailing dinner and dancing at the West Chester Holiday Inn. Saturday was filled with fun and games with the carnival. On Sunday, a volleyball tournament took place and students could listen to a concert put on by the Battle of the Bands winner.

Battle of the Bands

Beginning in late November, various local bands come together to compete to make the final cut for the Battle of the Bands. The final competition of Battle of the Bands, co-sponsored by SAC and ROC, was held on February 5, 1999. This year marked the 10 year anniversary of the event. The bands are judged on four different areas: originality, creativity, stage presence and musical collaboration. Various areas of the music industry are represented in the judging, including a judge from the on-line music store CD NOW. Mid Iron Blast came in first. Last Place finished second, and Kiwi placed third.

A National Tribute to Bayard Rustin: The Man/The Activist

Bayard Rustin was born in 1912 in West Chester, PA. He was an excellent student, athlete and musician; he attended Henderson High School, Wilberforce University, Cheyney State College, the City College of New York and the London School of Economics. Rustin was active in the A. Philip Randolph's March on Washington Movement, and later directed his Committee Against Discrimination in the Armed Forces. This was instrumental in securing President Truman's order eliminating segregation in the armed forces. He assisted Dr. Martin Luther King in the early days of the Montgomery Alabama Bus Boycott. Rustin also worked overseas to support human rights struggles, working on causes in India, South Africa, and Southeast Asia. In 1971, a series of his essays, "Down the Line," were published. Mr. Rustin was the recipient of the Murray/Greene/Meany Award, the John LaFarge Memorial Award, and the Stephen Wise Award. At the time of his death in 1987, he was the co-chairman of the A. Philip Randolph Institute and President of the A. Philip Randolph Educational Fund.

- Walter Naegel - Executor of the Bayard Rustin Estate & Executive Director of the Bayard Rustin Fund, Inc.

LUVIM PROGRAMS

↑ Tom Vanderbilt spoke on his book, "The Sneaker Book", and presented an analysis of the sneaker industry. In his program on September 9th, he analyzed the sneaker industry from the manufacturing process to the marketing and sales process. Vanderbilt spoke of how sneaker logos became icons, how companies have profited from the use of low-cost labor in Southeast Asia, and how the sneaker catapulted to prominence.

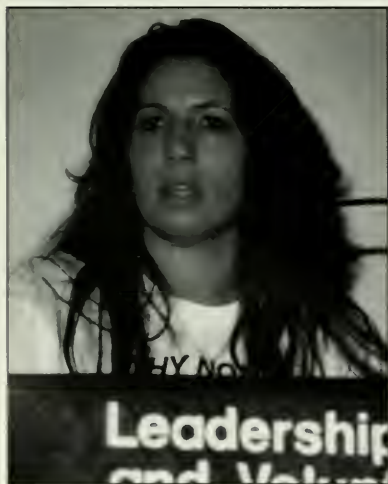

↓ Cleve Jones, the person who conceived the idea of the NAMES Project AIDS Memorial Quilt in 1985 following the death of a close friend, visited WCU on September 14th. Jones helped elect pioneer gay rights activist Harvey Milk to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors. Jones created the San Francisco AIDS Foundation in 1982, which was one of the first organizations established in the US in response to the AIDS epidemic.

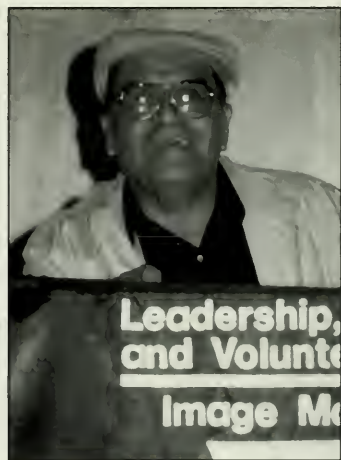

↑ Ruthellen Josselson spoke about her most recent books, "Revising Herself: The Story of Women's Identity From College to Midlife" and "Best Friends: Pleasures and Perils of Girl and Women Friends." Josselson is a Professor of Psychology at Towson University and a practicing psychotherapist. She received the Henry A. Murray Award from the American Psychological Association in 1994, and is also a Visiting Professor at Harvard University and Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

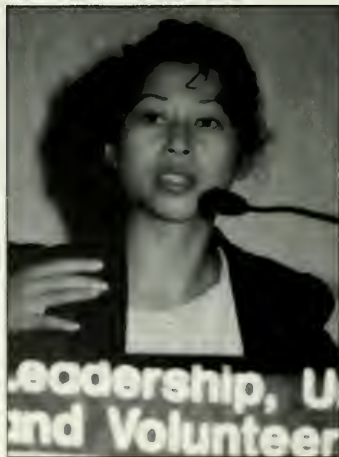

— Jaime Escalante is a high school teacher whose students, underprivileged and Hispanic, obtain the mathematics standards that are nearly unequalled in American education. Escalante is an immigrant from Bolivia and has become a folk hero for his success. His success inspired the 1988 film Stand and Deliver.

↑ Cherie Honkala is the Director of the Kesington Welfare Rights Union and co-chair for the National Welfare Rights Union. On her September 29th visit, she discussed how to build a social movement to end poverty and ensure economic human rights for all people. In her struggle to end poverty, Honkala has received numerous awards and several Pulitzer prizes.

— Loung Ung spoke of her journey from a homeland that witnessed the murder of two million people, to escape to the United States as a political refugee. Her parents and three siblings were executed. Her presentation puts a human face on the many victims of war, particularly women, and the lingering psychological, emotional and spiritual effects on survivors.

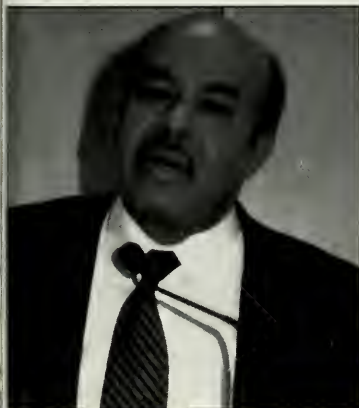

"The Power of the Written and Spoken Word" Fall 1998

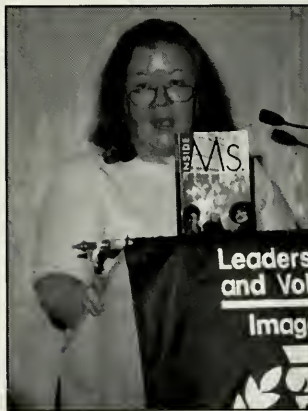

Allida M. Black is a professor at George Washington University and also the author of the book CASTING HER OWN SHADOW: Eleanor Roosevelt and the Shaping of Postwar Liberalism. Black spoke about the life, deeds, and written legacy of Eleanor Roosevelt. She is one of the nation's foremost authorities on Eleanor Roosevelt.

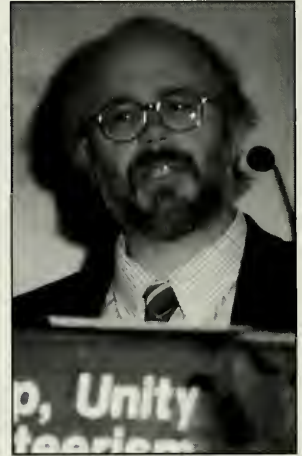

Ward Connerly is the father of Proposition 209 in California and chairman of the American Civil Rights Institute. He has gained national attention and respect as an outspoken advocate of equal opportunity for all Americans, regardless of race or sex. As a member of the University of California Board of Regents, he focused the attention of the nation on the university's race-based system of preferences in its admission policy. On July 20, 1995, following Connerly's lead, a majority of Regents voted to end the University's use of race as a means of admissions.

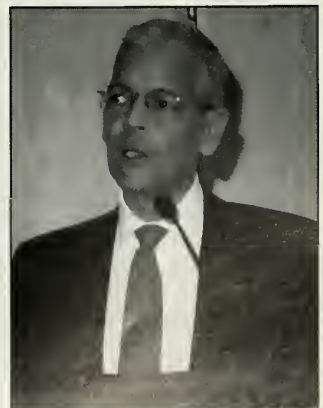

Todd Gitlin is a former professor of sociology and director of mass communications at the University of California, Berkeley and currently a professor in the departments of communication, journalism, and sociology at New York University. On his visit to WCU, he presented the first student/historical person collaboration looking at different aspects of the US Constitution. Gitlin was the third president of Students for Democratic Society, co-organizer of the first national demonstration against the Vietnam War.

Dr. Michael Behe is a professor of biochemistry at Lehigh University. On his visit to WCU, he discussed his book, Darwin's Black Box, which argues that living systems at the molecular level are best explained as being the result of deliberate intelligent design. Behe's book has drawn national attention and was chosen as the 1997 Book of the Year by Christianity Today.

Mary Thom was the executive editor of MS, starting out as a researcher in 1972, then serving as a writer and senior editor. Thom saw the magazine in each of its incarnations, from its early days - under Steinem and Carbine - through its Australian ownership in the late eighties, and finally to its new, ad-free form in 1991. On her visit to WCU, Thom presented the striking personalities that shaped MS as she traced the rise of one of the most transforming movements in twentieth-century America.

Julian Bond, a historic civil rights leader, Distinguished Scholar in Residence at American University, professor of history at the University of Virginia and current Chairman of the national NAACP Board, visited WCU to discuss the state of civil rights then and now. From his days as one of several hundred students who helped form the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), in 1960, to his work with the NAACP, Bond is a historical presence who exemplifies a lifetime of activism for black Americans and all disenfranchised people whose voices are often times not heard.

LUVIM PROGRAMS

John Leonard discussed what he loves best...television. Leonard takes on the religious right, the "headline-hungry senators," and others who claim that television is responsible for the decline of America's moral fiber. Television is a mirror for our society, a cure for loneliness, a friend who reflects back at us our emotions - it is not the propaganda machine for violence, drug abuse, and moral decay it's so often portrayed to be.

Leon Botstein is the president of Bard College, musical director of the American Symphony Orchestra, and editor of Musical Quarterly. He was the youngest college president in history, taking his current position at age 23. President Botstein takes on the cultural pessimist who he believes are harming our youth and damaging our democracy. "Most citizens believe that yesterday things were better. Even those born during the 1950s romanticize the past. There is little optimism about tomorrow." Such relentless and unjustified pessimism, Botstein argues, becomes a barrier to a hopeful future.

Charles Marsh is a professor of history at Loyola College in Baltimore and winner of the 1998 Louisville Grawemeyer Award in Religion with his religious studies promoting the understanding between human beings and the divine. The award centers on his book God's Long Summer: Stories of Faith and Civil Rights. Professor Marsh discussed the violent struggle over civil rights in 1964 Mississippi which shows how God's will can be interpreted to fit individual beliefs.

Angela "Bay" Buchanan is the president of the American Cause, an educational foundation founded by her brother, Pat Buchanan. Ms. Buchanan served as campaign chairman for both her brother's presidential campaigns in 1992 and 1996. In the summer of 1996, George magazine recognized her as one of the top 20 political women in the nation. Ms. Buchanan currently co-anchors an MSNBC political talk show, "Equal Time."

“People Who Comprehend the Issues, Of Our Time and Century, and Are Willing to Challenge Others to do the Same” Spring 1999

Ann D. Gordon is the editor of the Papers Of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony and Associate Research Professor in the Department of History at Rutgers University, New Brunswick. Before joining the Stanton and Anthony papers project in 1982, she worked on the editorial staff publishing the papers of Jane Adams and Woodrow Wilson. Her program paid tribute to the Seneca Falls anniversary and the Underground Railroad where the women's rights movement and the antislavery movement influenced each other.

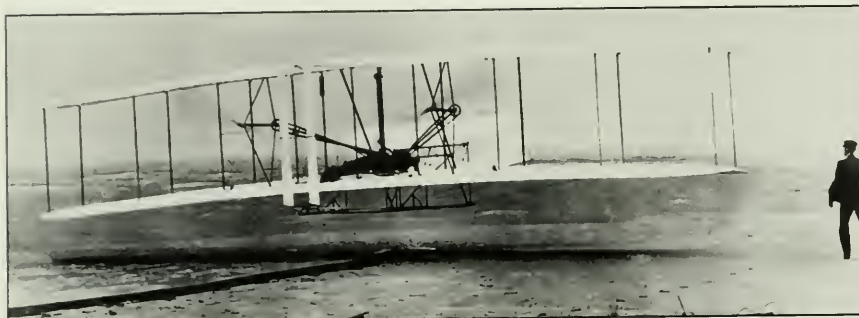

Reverend Barry Stopfel is an Episcopal priest and the Rector of Saint George's Episcopal Church in Maplewood, New Jersey. His story takes us behind the front-page news and into the heart and mind as the volatile mix of religion and sexuality turn a life upside down. Rev. Stopfel, a gay man, discussed what he and his partner, Will Leckie, have to say about their experience as gay Christian men who have born the brunt of society's homophobia, harassment, and hatred.

As one of the defining happenings of the 20th Century, the Vietnam War touched the lives of an entire generation. What is the impact of this war on today's America and today's youth; the children of the Vietnam generation. Harry Gaffney, Dan Fraley, Dennis Best, Dr. Steve Silver & Marsha Four shared their personal Vietnam stories and the impact of the Wall in their lives.

Century of Reflection

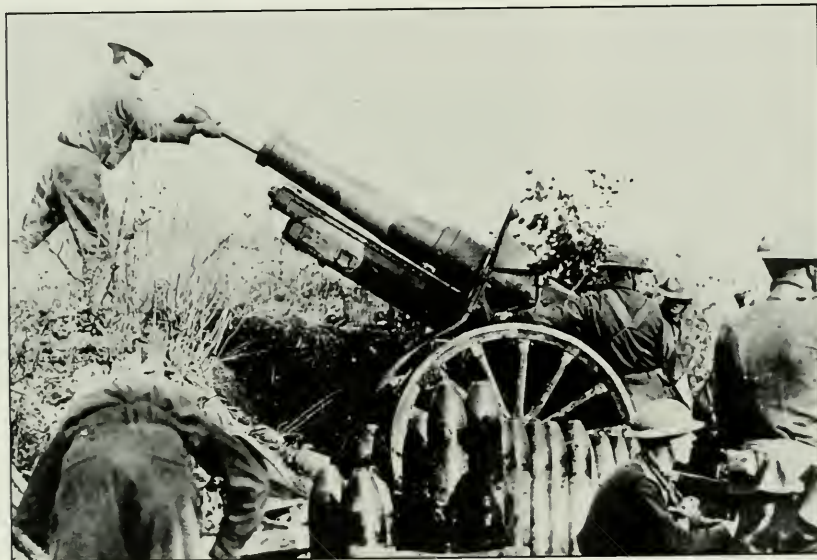

Events of the 20th Century

— 1903 - The Wright Brothers at Kitty Hawk. Wilbur and Orville Wright went on to obtain a US patent for a powered air craft in 1906.

↓ The Stock Market Crash - October 29, forever to be known as Black Tuesday; over 16 million shares of stock were sold and their value fell sharply, leaving financial ruin and panic.

— 1914-1918 - World War I. It started as a local European War and became a global war involving 32 nations.

— Prohibition - A noble experiment" as it was called by President Herbert Hoover, lasted about 14 years and resulted in the passing of the 18th amendment, which made the sale of alcohol illegal.

— Great Depression - The value of money decreased and the demand for goods declined, leaving about 15 million people out of work and over 90,000 businesses failed completely.

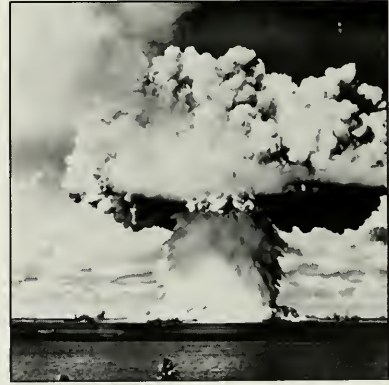

— World War II - A global military conflict that was the most devastating war in history in terms of lives lost and material destruction. One of the most memorable moments of WWII was the flag-raising on the island of Iwo Jima in the Pacific.

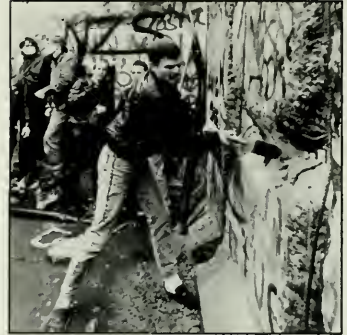

↓ Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. was the guiding light for 15 of the most crucial years in America's civil rights struggle. On Aug. 28, 1963, he gave his famous "I have a dream" speech at the Lincoln memorial during a march in Washington, D.C.

↓— Assassination of John F. Kennedy - In November of 1960, he became the youngest man ever elected president of the United States. He was assassinated on Nov. 22, 1963 in Dallas, Texas. Kennedy brought to the presidency an awareness of the cultural and historical traditions of the United States and an appreciation of intellectual excellence.

↓— The Atomic Bomb was the first nuclear weapon to be developed, tested and used. The US government established the Manhattan Project in 1942 to develop an atomic device. The only time that a nuclear weapon was used in a war between nations was at the end of WWII when US dropped the bomb on the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

↓— Vietnam - In 1965 the United States sent in troops to prevent the South Vietnamese government from collapsing. Ultimately, the US failed to achieve its goal, and Vietnam reunified under communist control. The result was the death of more than 58,000 Americans.

↓ Man Walks on the Moon - On July 20, 1969, Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin and Neil Armstrong landed on the moon. As millions of Americans watched, Armstrong stepped onto the surface of the moon and said "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

↓ AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome) was first conclusively identified in the US in 1981 when 189 cases were reported to the Centers for Disease Control. Within a decade the disease had spread to virtually all areas of the world. The origin of the AIDS virus is uncertain, but it may have come from Central Africa.

↓ The Berlin Wall was built in 1961 as a highly visible symbol of the Cold War that divided Germany into east and west. By 1989, the East German regime was on the verge of collapse. On Nov. 9, 1989 citizens began to demolish whole sections of the Wall without interference of government officials. In 1990, East Germany and West Germany reunited as one nation, the Federal Republic of Germany.

— On Jan. 28, 1986, the Space Shuttle Challenger blasted off from Kennedy Space Center. A brief 73 seconds into the mission, it exploded killing its crew of seven. It was the worst space disaster in history. After a thorough investigation and design modifications, shuttle missions resumed on Sept. 29, 1988.

↓ The Beatles was a British pop group formed in Liverpool, England in 1960. John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, and Ringo Starr made up the group and had many hits. In 1962, their song "Love Me Do" became a huge hit and Beatlemania spread around the world. The group made appearances around the world and on TV shows such as The Ed Sullivan Show"

↓ Richard M. Nixon was the first US president to resign his office. He was brought down by revelations of administrative misdeeds collectively known as "Watergate." Facing certain impeachment, he resigned in August 1974.

1998-1999

The Year in Review

—,→,] President Bill Clinton became embroiled in a White House scandal that led to hearings on possible impeachment. It started when Kenneth Starr was appointed as Special Prosecutor to investigate President & Hillary Clinton's failed investment in an Arkansas real estate venture called Whitewater. He was accused of having an 18-month sexual relationship with Monica Lewinsky, then a 21-year old White House intern.

] House Judiciary Committee Chairman Henry Hyde, a Republican from Illinois, led the House of Representatives in the impeachment of President Clinton. A trial to impeach the President was conducted but not before a vote of 43-57 rejected a motion to dismiss the case against the President.

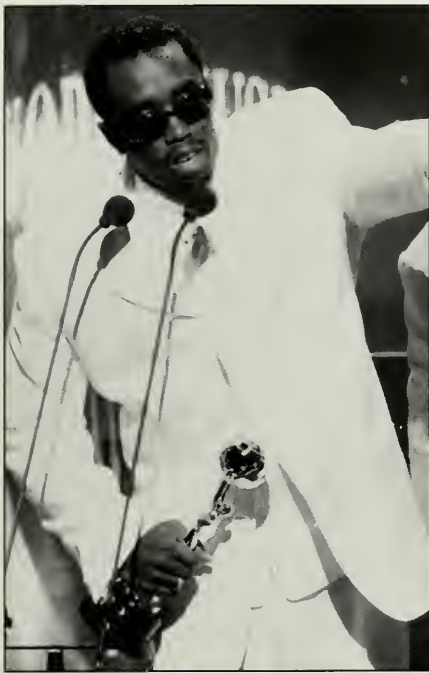

— Hurricane Georges ripped through the Florida Keys and into the Gulf of Mexico, before slamming into Mississippi and Alabama. Georges was the costliest disaster in the 117 years of Red Cross relief efforts, topping the $81.5 million the agency spent on Hurricane Andrew.

‡ U.S. Senator John Glenn ended his long career in the Senate with a return to space. Astronaut Glenn, 77, who made a pioneering space flight in 1962, returned to space in November 1998, aboard the Discovery on a 10-day mission.

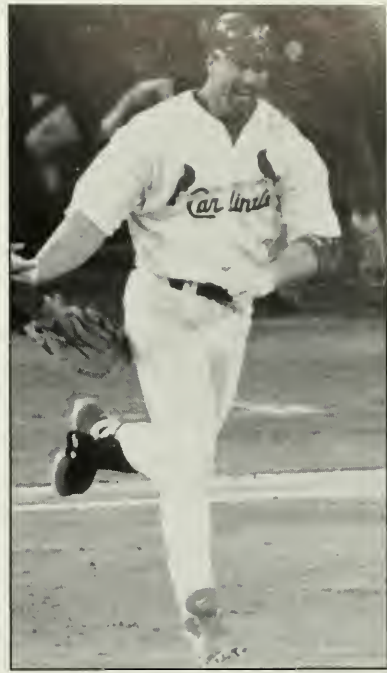

‡ Newt Gingrich was the first Republican to be re-elected Speaker of the House of Representatives since 1928. He was first elected Speaker in 1995 with the promise of enacting a new conservative agenda. On November 6, 1998, Gingrich announced he would not seek re-election for the position of Speaker of the House, he also announced that he would retire from his seat at the end of 1998.

— In late summer, American embassies in Kenya and Tanzania fell victim to terrorist bombings. The Nairobi bomb took place almost simultaneously with the bombing in Dar es Salaam and killed 247 people; another 5500 people were injured. A few arrests were made, but American government officials say the man responsible was Osama Bin Laden, and exiled Saudi millionaire.

← In 1997, Sean "Puffy" Combs, also known as Puff Daddy, made his sole debut with "No Way Out," which featured appearances by Notorious B.I.G. and Busta Rhymes. The album spawned the best-selling single "Can't Nobody Hold Me Down" and quickly went platinum.

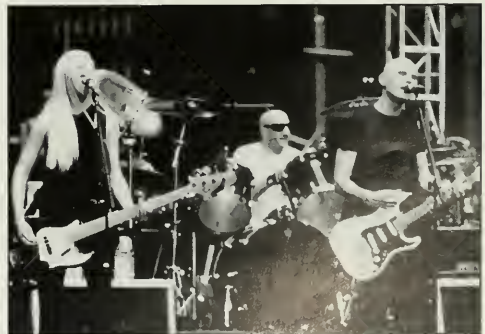

→ Mark McGwire battled with Sammy Sosa to beat the home run record of 61 set by New York Yankee Roger Maris in 1961. We the dust settled at the end of the season, McGwire, 34-year-old right-handed hitter from the St. Louis Cardinals, won the home-run record with 70 home runs.

↑ Quarterback John Elway led the Denver Broncos to a 34-19 win against the Atlanta Falcons in Super Bowl XXXIII at Pro Player Stadium in Miami. The Broncos scored 17 points in the game's first half and then 17 more in the fourth quarter alone.

→ The New York Yankees won a record 24th World Series with a sweep of the San Diego Padres. In addition to dominating the series, the Yankees dominated the 1998 baseball season. They finished the year with an overall record of 125-50.

→ The Smashing Pumpkins began as a duo in 1988 with Billy Corigan and guitarist James Iha. A bass player and a drummer was soon added and the group exploded in 1993 with the release of the multimillion-selling "Siamese Dream." After some rocky times, the band came back strong and won a MTV Video Music Award; the group went on to receive seven Grammy nominations.

Hard work, dedication, perseverance. These are all qualities found in athletes. The athletes of West Chester University share in one common goal: to be the best that they can be. Many hours of practice go into reaching their goal. Whatever the outcome, the result is the same: the WCU athletes give their all to their individual sports.

A Record Breaking Season

The 1998 football season proved to be a great one for the Golden Rams who wrapped up the season 8-3 and 5-1 PSAC. Nineteen ninety-eight was a year to shine for juniors Mike Mitros and Kevin Ingram. Mitros, the quarterback, broke the record for passing yards in a game on October third, only to go and break that record on the thirty-first, but that was only the beginning. Mitros tied the record for 200 yard games in a season and was ranked second for single-season passing yards, pass completions, total offense yards, touchdowns, pass attempts, and career 200 yd games. His 3,478 offensive yards, 32 TD's, and 457 pass attempts have pushed him into 3rd, 5th, and 5th respectively in the PSAC. Mitros was also named the 1998 NCAA II National Champion for Total Offense with 316.2 yards per game. He also became only the third person to break the 6000 yard barrier in Golden Rams history. However, Mitros was not the only one to have a record breaking season, wide receiver Kevin Ingram completed a stellar season as well, setting a large number of records not just at WCU but in the PSAC, ECAC II, and the NCAA II. Ingram set the WCU, PSAC and ECAC II record for receptions and receiving yards in a season with 115 and 1674 respectively and was the first receiver to ever catch 100 balls or record 1600 yards in a season in the PSAC and ECAC II. He also set the ECAC II and NCAA II record for touchdown catches in a season. Ingram now holds the WCU single-game all purpose yardage mark which he ran down against Clarion with 401 yards; in that same game, he set a record for the highest number of receiving yards in a single game here at WCU and in the ECAC II, PSAC, and NCAA II and became just the second ever NCAA receiver - at any level - to record over 400 receiving yards in a single game. Ingram, like Mitros, earned 1998 NCAA honors, being named the 1998 NCAA II National Champion for receptions per game. Ingram also tied the WCU record for catching four touchdown passes twice this season, set the mark for 100 yard games in a season and consecutive 100 yard games in a season, and set the WCU career mark for 10-catch games with a total of 8 this season. This Golden Ram also earned Regional honors as he was named to the 1998 Daktronics Inc., Division II All- Northeast Regional Football First Team receiving the most votes in the nation at his position of wide receiver. Overall the Golden Rams finished 2nd in the PSAC and the ground work for a spectacular season in nineteen ninety-nine has been laid down and with Mitros, Ingram, and all of the other returning Rams, next season promises to be a good one.

Cheerleading

Each year the West Chester athletes play hard and give their all; the WCU cheerleaders are no different. Every football and basketball season would not be complete without the talented group of athletes that make up the cheerleading squad. The Golden Rams squad urges the teams onward to victory and get the fans actively involved in the games. These men and women practice hard and devote many hours to getting the cheers just right and are poised and ready to give their all at anytime whether the team be scoring the winning point or fighting to regain the lead. Try and imagine the games without the cheering and the enthusiasm that the Golden Rams offer as they urge their teams onward to victory.

Women's Soccer

Breaking Records.

As the women's soccer program progresses, the Lady Rams keep improving and building upon experience. The 1998 season was yet another record breaking season for the Golden Rams as they replaced a record of twelve wins in a season with fifteen. They also beat Textile for the first time ever. Junior Heather Allgyer, who completed a successful season, left footed and unassisted, shot forty yards putting the Lady Rams up by one which turned out to be enough to win the game. Allgyer was named to the All PSAC First Team and is the all time career scoring leader in WCU soccer history. She ended the season with 14 goals, assisted six others to post a team high of 34, and a career total of 5 game winning goals. The Lady Rams opened the season leading the PSAC in points per game and goals per game and maintained that lead and for the first time in the history of women's soccer the Lady Rams headed into the post season. The team played well and gave their all but they fell in a close game at the ECAC semi-finals, finishing the season 15-3-1 and 6-2-1 in the PSAC. The Lady Rams have the potential to make Nineteen Ninety-Nine another record breaking season.

Men's Soccer

Playing Hard.

The West Chester men's soccer team finished the 1998 season 10-8- and 4-2-1 in the PSAC. The Golden Rams opened the season beating Moravian and fought their way through the season and into the playoffs. Even though a valiant effort was given at the playoff game they fell to Millersville. Senior goal keeper Joe Bocklet had a good season as did juniors John DeMichele and Brian Clark and sophomore Thatcher Book. Clark was named to the All-PSAC First Team and Book to the Second Team. Erik Podbutsky, a freshman on the team earned the title of PSAC Rookie of the Year with 6 goals, 15 points, 10 assists, and 3 game winning goals. Podbutsky finished the season in 3rd place for scoring on the team. With the youth and potential laid in the groundwork of this team, the 1999 team of Golden Rams could prove to be a formidable foe.

Women's Volleyball

Bump, Set, Kill.

The 1998 season ended for the Lady Rams with a third place conference finish, a 15-9 overall record, and 7-3 in the PSAC. All in all 1998 proved to be a good season for the WCU women's volleyball team. Junior Beth Olney played a good season finishing as a career record holder with 192 service aces and second in PSAC for service aces and digs. She was also the team leader in digs with an average of 3.94 per game. Sophomore Heather Albright, and senior Mary Wright also completed a successful season leading the team with kills, following just behind Olney. Albright and Wright were named to the 1998 PSAC Division II All Conference Volleyball First Team and Olney, along with senior setter Maryann Black who made the Second Team. Black was also the team leader in assists with 7.99 per game. A lot of talent remains in the Lady Rams court and with hard work they could prove a formidable foe in Nineteen Ninety-Nine.

Cross Country

Surging Ahead.

The 1998 Golden Rams cross country team maintained a good pace all season, starting out strong and ending just as strong. The women's team finished 17th in the NCAA II National ranking. Sophomore Kelly Walton had a very successful season; she completed the season ranked fourth in the Eastern Region. She also became the first WCU female athlete involved in cross country or indoor track to accomplish the feat of competing in the NCAA II National Cross Country Championships since 1991 where she finished twenty-first. Walton was the first WCU woman since 1984 to be named the NCAA II All-American Cross Country Runner. The men's team also completed a successful season and were ranked 17th at NCAA II Regional in Nineteen Ninety-Eight. Sophomore Chris Naimoli posted the best time among the Golden Rams with 35:37 at 64th place in the 10,000 meter event. Next season promises to be one of good performances for the returning Rams.

Field Hockey

Playing Hard.

The Lady Ram's field hockey team started the season as the A-10 defending champions and played like the champions they were all season. Even though the Rams finished the season 8-12 overall and 4-1 in the A-10, the team members gave their all everytime they set foot on the playing field. Several of the WCU team members had stellar seasons. Junior Amy Dolan was named an alternate to the 1998 National Field Hockey Coaches Association All-Star Game. Senior Teri Minzola also had an outstanding season and was named Astro Turf NHFCA Midwest Region Second Team All American. Minzola also earned All-American honors as she was chosen for the Atlantic 10 All Conference Team. Also given conference recognition by being named to the A-10 All Tournament Team were sophomore Kim Rochon and junior Donna Polito. Freshman goal keeper Joelle Maguire also performed well in the 1998 season. The Lady Rams who will be returning next season have the drive and the skill to be a potentially unstoppable force.

Women's Tennis

Serving to Win.

The Lady Rams jump started the 1998 season with their best start since Nineteen Eighty. The women's tennis team played hard all season and set the record for wins in a season with ten and then broke that record with a eleventh win against Kutztown. Five of the WCU Lady Rams reached the quarterfinals of the 1998 PSAC Women's Tennis Championship in Erie, Pennsylvania in October. They wrapped up the season 11-4 and laid the groundwork for next season. The potential of the returning players could make the Lady Rams a force to contend with next season.

Men's Tennis

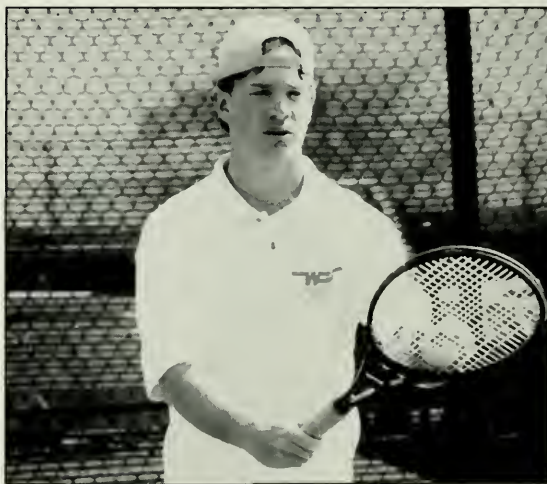

Playing Hard

The Golden Rams started out the 1998 season strong and ended on a strong late season run. This season's team consisted of eight members including veteran Dave MacKenzie and seniors Troy Miller and Scott Falatek, and transfer Chris Kyper, adding more depth to the team. The Golden Rams worked their way to the PSAC Championships, held in Bloomsburg, earning fifth place as a team. Troy Miller finished third at first singles and then teamed up with Scott Falatek for a third place finish at first doubles. Falatek also earned a fourth at second singles. Chris Kyper and Dave MacKenzie received fifth place at third doubles. The Golden Rams finished off their season at the 7-7 mark. Experience gained this season could prove to be an invaluable asset to the Rams returning next season, making them a force to contend with on the court.

Swimming and Diving

One Length Ahead

Nineteen Ninety-Eight proved to be an excellent season for the Swimming and Diving teams. This season proved a record breaking season for several members of the squad. Both teams contained a solid group of seasoned veterans. However, freshman Matt Matys stands out as the "wrecking ball" to any who opposed the Golden Rams. Matys ended the 1998 season with quite a few honors including PSAC Swimmer of the Week three times, six PSAC Championships, and five honorable mentions at the NCAA II Swimming and Diving Championships. Matys also broke the 200 IM record of 1:55.17 set in 1995 by current assistant coach Scott Elliot with a time of 1:55.07, posted the fastest dual meet time for the 500 freestyle and in the 100 freestyle WCU history and the the fastest 50 freestyle this season.

However, Matys was not the only one to have a record breaking season. Freshman Todd Albert broke the record for the 100 fly. Senior Alexis Palmer posted the fastest dual meet mark in WCU history in the 100 fly at a tri-meet held in New Haven, CT in January and then went on to record the second best time of the season in the 200 freestyle. Palmer also recorded the fastest time for the 200 backstroke this season and earned a pair of All American Honors and an All American Honorable Mention in finishing 5th in the 200 butterfly, 6th in the 100 fly, and 10th in the 200 IM, respectively.

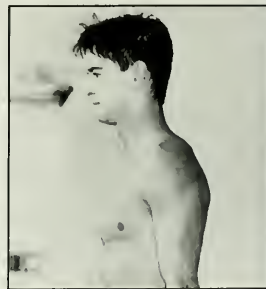

Also earning All American or Honorable Mention accolades at the 1999 NCAA II National Swimming and Diving Championships were as follows: Fr. Avital Bressler (12th in the 200 fly), So. Kristen Krail (9th in both the 100 and 200 breast), So. Grant Clark (5th in the 200 breast), and Sr. Dan Markle, So. Grant Clark, Fr. Todd Albert, and Fr. Matt Matys (in the 400 and 200 m. relays). Senior, diver Brain Ginocchetti also earned All American Honors by coming in 2nd and 3rd in the one-meter board with 424.20 pts. and the three meter board with 457.45 pts., respectively. Ginocchetti also earned 4th at the ECAC Diving Championships.

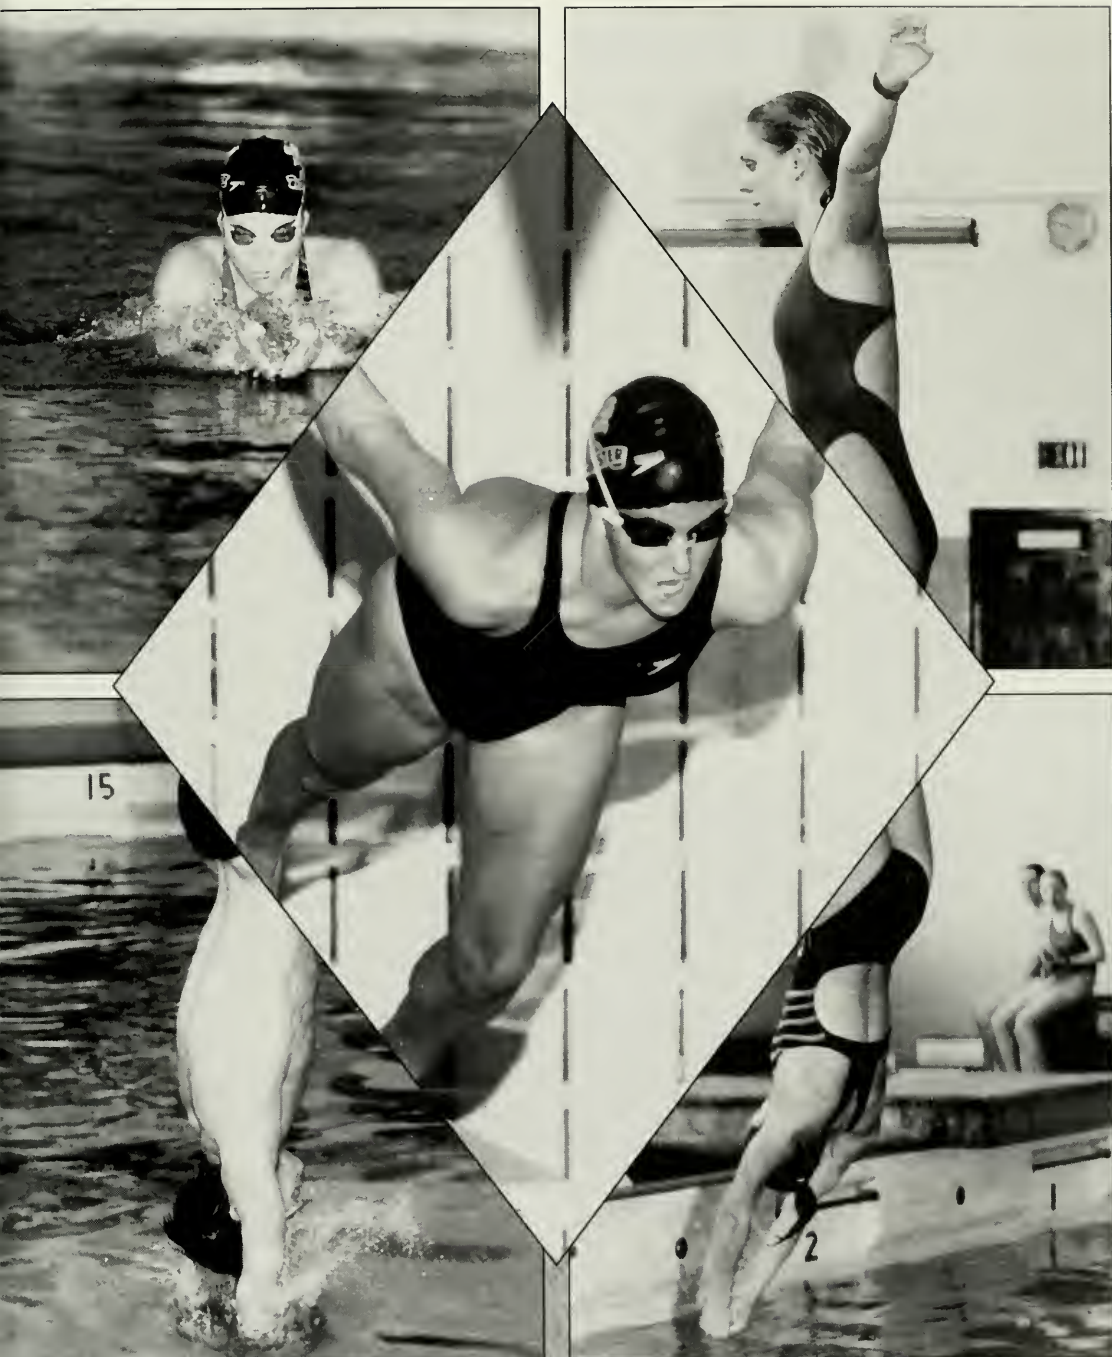

In the PSAC West Chester had individuals of high ranking as well as teams of high ranking as this season came to an end. Individually So. Grant Clark earned Male Swimmer of the Year, Fr. Matt Matys earned Rookie of the Year, and Coach Jamie Rudisill earned the title of PSAC Men's Coach of the Year. As a team the Lady Rams finished fourth in the PSAC and eighth in the Nation. The Golden Rams earned their first PSAC title since 1970 and were ranked 11th in Division II. Nineteen Ninety-Eight has laid excellent ground work for following seasons which if utilized will prove to be bad news for any opposition to the WCU Lady and Golden Rams next year.

Gymnastics

Vaulting Ahead

The Lady Rams began the season with a squad consisting of talented freshman and a number of core members from last season. Returning members included junior Christine Curran who proved a valuable asset to the team. Curran paved the way at the ECAC II Gymnastics Championships to finish fourth overall at a score of 37.275. She also earned third on the vault with 9.4 and led the squad on the bars and balance beam with 9.2 and 9.075, respectively. Curran was also awarded the honor of ECA Gymnast of the Week this season.

However, Curran was not alone in earning ECAC honors. Sophomore Holly Sliker earned the ECAC Gymnast of the Week title twice. Sliker also earned a spot at the 1999 USA Gymnastics Collegiate National Championships in the floor exercise. She was accompanied by freshman Jamie Beaver who competed in the vaulting event. Both held their own against the 58 other competitors, earning 22nd and 14th, respectively. Beaver also claimed sixth place overall at the ECAC Championships, winning the vault championship with 9.475 and leading the Lady Rams in the floor exercise with 9.675.

This season proved a record breaking season for the Lady Rams as a team. The Rams met their record of 5 consecutive wins and went on to break the record for total wins with 9-10 at the season's close, breaking the 8-5 record set in Nineteen-Ninety. The squad also set the team record on the uneven bars with 44.275 and went on to break that record at the ECAC Championships with 44.625. That record wasn't the only one that the Lady Rams made during the season and then later broke. They set an all time team high of 181.55 and went on to break that record with a score of 182.85 at the ECAC Championships. Overall 1998 proved an excellent season and laid the groundwork for those returning next season to pose great opposition to their opponents.

Men's Basketball

Shooting to Win

The Golden Rams played well for the duration of the 101st season of play in the WCU men's basketball program. Several of the players earned honors throughout the season. Among them were seniors Lamar Legree and Donta Evans and sophomore Tyraq Corbin and freshman Joe Meade.

Legree earned a passel of titles as he ended his career at WCU. He earned the Sam Cozen Award averaging 12.9 points and 6.0 rebounds per game, was chosen as the Eastern Division Player of the Week by the PSAC, and was named to the ECAC II Weekly Honor Roll. Legree ended his career leading the team in rebounds with 7.0 and a team high of 22 blocks. Evans finished out his WCU career earning a spot on the First Team 1999 PSAC All-PSAC Eastern Division Men's Basketball team for the second consecutive year — making this his fourth season earning All Conference honors. He ended the season with 1651 points., fourth in WCU history, 1345 field goal attempts, 203 three point shots made, 398 free throws made, 385 assists, and was the first Golden Ram to surpass the 200 mark with 285 steals. Evans was also named to the 1999 Daktronics NCAA II East All-Region Second Team. Corbin finished out the season second in scoring with 15.4 points and 6.9 rebounds per game and led the team with 66 steals. He also earned PSAC and ECAC honors making the PSAC Player of the Week, the ECAC Conference Weekly Honor Roll - twice, and was named to the ECAC II All-Star Team. Meade also had a stellar season earning the title of PSAC Rookie of the Year and tying Evans for the team lead in three point shots made. He also placed third in the WCU books for assists with 69 and acquired 32 steals during the season. Meade was also among the PSAC leaders in foul shooting with 87.1%.

As a team the Golden Rams finished the season 18th in Division II and second in the Eastern Region and PSAC. Midway through the season the Rams reached an all-time highest ranking of 16th in the nation. This outstanding season ended with the Golden Rams 23-6 and 10-2 PSAC East and laid the foundation for a stellar team next season.

 Dribbling down court, this Lady Ram

The Lady Rams started out the 1998 season strong and playing hard. Unfortunately by the end of the season knee injuries had laid claim to several key players. By the season's close seniors Jodi Jancosko, Aesha McGibboney, and Sue Molnar; junior Dawn Carter; and sophomores Amy MacDonald and Hallie Roulin were out for the season and in some cases their careers had come to an end. Jancosko, the teams leading scorer had to call an end to her career due to her injuries, but not without leaving her mark in WCU history. She is tied for fourth in all time scoring with 1255 points, is the all time leader in three pointers made and attempted with 186 and 616, respectively. Jancosko is also second in career field goals attempted (1326). Other notable statistics recorded by this senior include 409 rebounds and a 75.1% free throw shot.

However, losing these valuable players did not keep the Lady Rams from giving their all and making it to the PSAC quarterfinals. They wrapped up the season 16-11 and 8-4 in the PSAC. The Lady Rams also had a first this season — a 38 year young mother of three named Bridget DiCave was given the opportunity to participate this season. DiCave had served as the student assistant for the team the past three seasons and had been practicing with them since the beginning of the season. After losing Molnar and Carter, the head coach decided to add another player to the roster — DiCave.

The Lady Rams also had several players named to the PSAC All-PSAC East Division Second Team: senior Gina Tophoney and sophomores Hallie Roulin and Amy MacDonald. Tophoney had a successful season, ending her West Chester career with 212 blocks, the all-time career high in WCU history and third all-time among the PSAC. Losing key players can be both a curse and a blessing in disguise. When things such as this happen it forces the younger players to step up and take a chance, giving their all for the team and in doing so laying the groundwork for those retuning next season. Although the seniors will be greatly missed and injury laid claim to so many, the Lady Rams could be a formidable foe next season.

Baseball

Swinging to Win

The 1999 season proved to be one filled with hardwork and dedication, flashes of promise, and outstanding plays by several of the Golden Rams. New and returning players looked to seniors Jason Farrisier, Jared Moffet, and Billy Suzzo; junior Bob Opanel; and sophomores Gerald Herrera, Jason McDevitt, and Adam Rosenthal to lead the team. Farrisier was one of a trio of Golden Rams to break the .300 mark in the latter part of the season at .303 with 15 runs, 10 RBI's and 9 doubles late in the season. Jared Moffet was the second at .333 with 28 base hits, tying him for first with Jason McDevitt, and 13 RBI's. Freshman Brian Lindros was the third at .304 with a pair of RBI's. Adam Rosenthal also had a stellar season leading the Rams in RBI's. Another player who performed well this season was Jason McDevitt who also broke the .300 mark with a .313 clip early in the season and paced Rosenthal for the most RBI's. The Golden Rams wrapped up their season 9-27-2 and 2-18 in the PSAC. Through all of the trials and tribulations that the Rams went through this season, the framework for an excellent season in 2000 has been built.

Softball

Batting for Victory

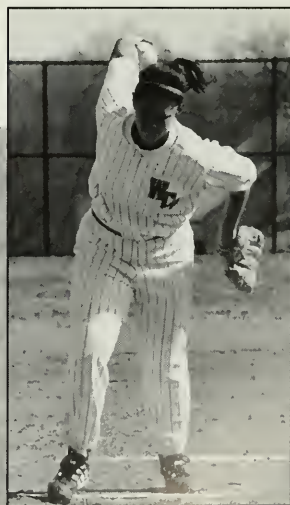

The Lady Rams put in a lot of overtime this season, playing 51 games — the second highest number of games played in a season in WCU history. Needless to say a lot of hard work and dedication was put forth by those on the women's team. The biggest win for the Rams this season was against Shippensburg, a nationally noted Division II team and they went on to win the final four games of their season. Many Lady Rams had a stellar season; one such player was senior pitcher Dana Barnabei. Barnabei finished the season leading in every offensive category possible. She had 42 runs, 57 hits, 12 doubles, 5 triples, 5 homeruns, 37 RBI's, 94 total bases, .648 slugging percentage, 19 walks, 3 sacrifice flies, and .462 on base percentage. Barnabei was simply the best offensive player on the team and posted an 18-18 record with 43 appearances, 27 complete games, and 212 innings pitched. Another stellar performance was put forth by junior Jen Charles. Charles broke a record of 11 doubles for the year with 12 this season. She had originally set the record along with fellow Ram senior Mary Fuller in Nineteen Ninety-Eight. Charles also holds the WCU second place record for the batting average at .393. The Lady Rams wrapped up their season 19-32 and 6-18 in the PSAC and with a great foundation set in place for another excellent season.

Men's Lacrosse

One Goal Ahead

The Golden Rams had an excellent season in Nineteen Ninety-Nine finishing 9-5 and 1-4 in NYAC. The men's lacrosse team defended the ECAC Division II Title to the best extent possible. The Rams made it all of the way to the finals, which were held at WCU, but suffered a close loss 9-8 against Merrimack. The team gave their all but Merrimack broke the 8-8 deadlock with only 1:14 left in the regulation. However, the Rams gave their all not only during the final game, but several players had stellar seasons as well. Juniors Jay Gambrill and Jeff Pettit finished up the season by being named to the 2nd team in the NYAC. Pettit also racked up 44 points on 33 goals and 11 assists during the season and completed his 100th career point this season. Gambrill, however, ended the season with a total 55 points on 24 goals and lead the team with 31 assists this year. Overall the Rams played well and with the potential number of returning veterans next season, 2000 could prove a promising season.

 "Team camaraderie is important even before the game begins.
 "The coaching staff watch as the Lady Rams move down the field.
 "And let the game begin..."

The 1999 season proved to be yet another winning season for the WCU Lady Rams. The Rams captured their eighth consecutive PSAC Championship Title this year and maintained a Division II ranking of number one all season long. The Lady Rams also earned a second consecutive passport to the NCAA National Collegiate Championships which is a tournament reserved primarily for Division I teams. Several outstanding players on the team were repeatedly mentioned throughout the season. Senior Teri Minzola is the most decorated player on the team earning a third time membership on the PSAC First Team Offense, two time consecutive PSAC Women's Lacrosse Player of the Year, and third time All-American Player. Minzola also lead in the PSAC in assists and ranked second and third in goals and scoring average, respectively. She broke her 100th career point and attained a total of 223 points during her career at WCU, 146 goals, and 77 assists. Minzola, however was not the only Lady Ram to earn PSAC honors. Also named to the PSAC First Team Offense were senior Melissa Conti and sophomore Kim Rochon. Seniors Amy Dolan and Kate Mulhern earned a spot on the PSAC Second Team Defense. Goalkeeper, senior Heather Vearling earned the role of All-PSAC Second Goalkeeper. The Lady Rams finished the season 11-3 and 6-0 in the PSAC and have left an excellent core intact for the upcoming 2000 season.

Track and Field

Sprinting Ahead

The Golden and Lady Rams involved with the WCU track and field program completed a successful season in Nineteen Ninety-Nine. The Lady Rams ended the season ranked thirteenth in the ECAC and the Golden Rams in ninth. Junior Todd Reinert had a record breaking season in the long jump competition. Reinert first tied the record of 23' 6 and 1/4" mark and then went on to break the record with a 23 foot 8 inch jump in the latter part of the season. He also qualified for the ECAC II Championships. Reinert was not the lone qualifier for the ECAC II event, sophomore Kelly Walton also qualified. Walton not only broke personal records this season, but she competed in the NCAA II Cross Country National Championship, NCAA II Indoor Track National Championship, and the NCAA II Outdoor Track National Championship. Many of the Golden and Lady Rams completed successful seasons and broke personal bests through hard work and determination. All of the work put into this season could prove useful in the next season, making WCU a potentially formidable foe.

—This Lady Ram watches the competition while waiting for her event.
—This Golden Ram is eagerly setting himself up to start the race.

—This Ram moves into the lead in the high jump.

—This WCU team member pushes hard to finish the race.

—This Golden Ram proves that a little water won't keep him from competing.

—Analyzing the opponent is a key component of preparing for an event.

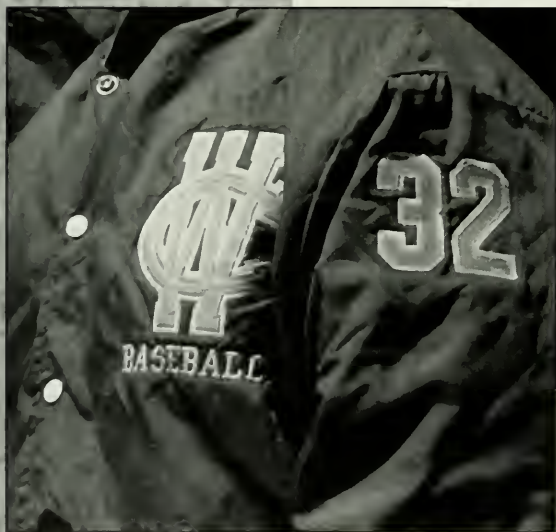

—This Lady Ram takes the terms "hit the sand" and "eat dirt" literally.

These Golden and Lady Rams have the endurance to jump high and sprint quickly for the team.

How do we get involved at West Chester University? We join one of the 200 clubs and organizations. From being president of the Student Government Association to playing an instrument in the Golden Rams marching band, there are various organizations to get involved in.

— Michelle P. Kee

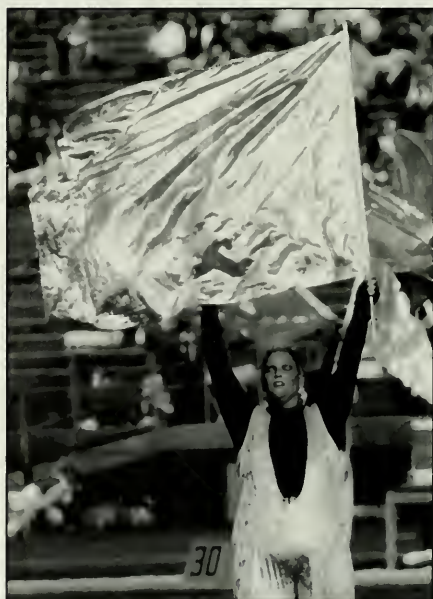

“People need responsibility. They resist assuming it, but they cannot get along without it.” — John Steinbeck

Organizations

Golden Rams

The Golden Rams Marching Band reached well over 300 members this year, including the color guard and the pit. The band is very active in supporting the West Chester University football team with their half-time and pre-game show performances at all home games and a few away games. This year, the Golden Rams participated in the Channel 6 parade to kick off pre-Thanksgiving festivities. The 300 plus members also gave exhibition performances in two cavalcades held at WCU, as well as various high school competitions. The members of the band give their all in putting together drills, routines, and music.

— Michelle P. Kee

Marching Band

Dance Production

Dance Production Workshop presented its twenty fourth performance, Dancing Down Broadway, from April 15th to 17th, 1999 in the Henderson High School Auditorium. Broadway selections in the Dance Production Workshop performance included: Be Our Guest from Beauty and the Beast, Carmina Burana, Crazy for You, Miss Saigon, Rent, Chicago, The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas, Footloose, Sideman, Cats, Cirque de Soleil-Quidam, Tommy, Hair, and Sweet Charity.

DPW was founded with the purpose of giving its members an opportunity to seek, understand, and become actively involved in the various aspects of producing a dance concert. Besides performance, many of the students are responsible for choreography, costuming, lighting, etc. Auditions are open to all full time students and are held during the Fall semester. Approximately one hundred dancers auditioned this year and from this number, over fifty students performed.

— Michelle P. Kee

School of Music's Renaissance Fair

The School of Music's Renaissance Fair included performances by three of West Chester University's musical organizations: Chamber Choir, Collegium Musicum, and Concert Choir. Chamber Choir consists of a small group of students who specialize in the performance of music of the Renaissance and Baroque periods. Collegium Musicum is an ensemble specializing in the performance of Medieval, Renaissance, and Baroque instrumental music. Concert Choir is a mixed choir of approximately 40 outstanding musicians devoted to the accurate and musical performance of an extensive repertoire of widely varying musical styles.

Student Governing and

Council of Commuting And Off-Campus Students

← The Council of Commuting and Off-Campus Students' primary goal is to represent and serve all undergraduate students residing off campus. The Council of CAOS represents the largest segment of the West Chester University community, approximately 7,000 students, over 70 percent of the undergraduate population. The Council of CAOS provides many services which include annual scholarships, auto repair equipment, housing fairs, lunchtime programming, and free legal counsel.

Residence Hall Association

← The Residence Hall Association represents the resident student in all aspects of residence life. RHA works for the improvement of campus life for all students and strives for high standards in both the social and academic aspects of the University. The 3,351 members of RHA program, plan, and inform residents of events in their organization and throughout the campus. The Residence Hall Association sponsors: sibling weekend, spring weekend, final exams packages, and flowers for graduation.

Student Activities Council

← The Student Activities Council is one of the major programming organizations at West Chester University. Totally funded and run by students, SAC plans and presents many of the activities and events on campus. By utilizing students' talents and energies, SAC strives to present a wide variety of programs that meet the needs and interests of the West Chester University community. SAC is comprised of seven committees (The R.O.C., T.R.I.P.S., Club Tuesday, Publicity and Promotion, Lunchtime Entertainment, Lights and Sound, SAC Night at the Movies) and an Executive Board.

Campus Programming

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association is a vital organization for the campus community and serves as the liaison between the students and administration of West Chester University.

→ The Executive Board, along with the 70 student senators, make up the West Chester SGA. The Senate membership consists of students representing the Academic Affairs, University Advancement, and Fiscal Affairs Divisions of the University as well as senators representing the various programs of student life.

Sykes Union Advisory Board

← The Sykes Union Advisory Board is a student organization that develops and maintains the student union building as a place to enjoy social, cultural, and recreational activities in a pleasant, comfortable atmosphere. The purpose of UAB is to evaluate and recommend union policies, building operations, services, and allocation of building space.

Academic and

Alchemist Club

— The Alchemist Club is a student affiliate chapter of the American Chemical Society. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for chemistry, chemistry-biology, pre-medical, and other majors to intermingle with one another and the faculty. Club-sponsored activities include lectures, tours of area facilities, free tutoring, performance of a chemical magic show, publication of a newsletter, and many social and sports events.

Council for Exceptional Children

— The Council for Exceptional Children is a group of students - special education majors and others - who are involved in sponsoring activities for exceptional people. They are also a chapter of the Student Council for Exceptional Children, which is a national organization involved in the education of exceptional children. The ten members are currently fundraising money to provide assistance for a school in Nigeria that educates students with disabilities. They are also fundraising to send active members to CEC conventions. Their goal is to provide assistance and funding to unique individuals with disabilities in the community.

Criminal Justice Association

— The 42 members of the Criminal Justice Association - the Sigma Tau Omicron chapter of the American Criminal Justice Association - participate in the WCU Adopt-a-Block program, and bring in bi-weekly speakers from a variety of state, federal, and local organizations with possible jobs and internships. Their goals are to improve criminal justice through education, foster professionalism, and promote professional, academic, and public awareness of criminal justice issues. They were recognized on campus as an outstanding service organization.

Professional

French Club

— The French Club, founded at WCU in 1972, promotes a love of all things French, an understanding of French culture, creates a fellowship and language expression skills. The 30 members sponsor trips, bake sales, a television news show, and get together.

Honors Student Association

— The Honors Student Association serves all WCU students interested in academic achievement, leadership, development, and community service. The 120 members of the HSA sponsor a trip to the Smithsonian in Washington, D.C., back to school BBQ, service project with Lionville Elementary School DEEP program, teas at Tanglewood, newsletter, Christmas caroling, end of semester bash, annual end of year banquet, buddy program, and graduate school information night.

Management Society

National Association of Black Accountants

↑ The National Association of Black Accountants was founded in September 1998 by Sidney Johnson. The 25-30 members sponsor resume workshops, an accounting career fair, and senior partners dress to impress workshops. The goal of the NABA is to make minorities in business majors aware of what job opportunities are available in the corporate world.

Academic and

Pre-Law Society

— The 20 members of the Pre-Law Society sponsor the Kaplan test drive, special speakers, visits to law schools, and a law school forum. The goals of the Pre-Law Society are to guide students through the application process, help students determine if they want to pursue law, and expose students to the variety of jobs available with a law degree. The club familiarizes students who are interested in law or the legal field with information and services concerning the legal field.

Psychology Club

— The purpose of the Psychology Club is to provide experiences for students that enhance classroom instruction. Activities include forums for in-depth presentation of current research in given areas of psychology as well as faculty and student discussions on graduate schools, conducting research in the psychology department, and jobs in the field of psychology. Members are also provided with opportunities for informal interchange with faculty, invited scholars, and others.

Russian Club

— The Russian Club is open to all who are interested in the Russian language or culture; knowledge of Russian is not required for membership. The goals of the club are to increase awareness, understanding, and enjoyment of Russian culture, and to provide a forum for applying what students learn about Russia and the Russian language. The Russian Club sponsors the Brighton Beach field trip, Russian Orthodox Easter celebration, newsletter, and charity fundraisers for disabled Russian children.

Professional

Student Nurses' Association of Pennsylvania

— SNAP is an organization which exists for the purpose of future nurses to begin to develop professionalism and is an opportunity for nursing students to get together outside the classroom setting. SNAP provides many opportunities through scholarship, political awareness on current issues and incentives for community involvement. SNAP sponsors the Thanksgiving food drive, Ronald McDonald House baking project, Penn Star helicopter landing - flight nursing program, and Christmas card for Ronald McDonald house.

West Chester Association for the Education of Young Children

— The West Chester Association for the Education of Young Children sponsors workshops, scholastic book tour, bake sales, Christmas donations, and a Halloween carnival. WCAEYC plans to help achieve the National goal of providing quality, affordable, and accessible child care through being an active advocate for all children.

Women in Communications

— Women in Communications was founded in the fall of 1998. Workshops, guest speakers, and social functions are offered throughout the year. The goal of the fifteen members is to provide its members with real-life experiences that will assist them with their career goals.

Anime Club

— The Anime Club provides a medium where students share Japanese animation interests like Akira and Speed Racer. The enjoyment and entertainment value of anime, as a special interest, culture, and ethnic awareness club, is promoted at WCU just as it is done at other colleges and universities across the USA. The goals of the six members of Anime are to educate WCU students about the art of anime through social interaction and the screening of diverse videos, and to be well established on campus by the millenium.

Asian American Organization

— The Asian American Organization was established in 1995 to promote awareness of the Asian-American community on campus. The 31 members of AAO sponsor Asia Month (October), an annual banquet, the International Bazaar, the AAO club retreat, a cultural bake sale, Banana Day, a Broadway trip, Paintball, Harvard's inter-collegiate conference, and the organization fair. The Asian American Organization's goal is to promote Asian-American awareness and unity on campus and in the community.

Association of Disability Awareness

— The Association for Disabilities Awareness is interested in increasing awareness of disability issues on campus, in educating the WCU community on issues related to disabilities, and in providing support and social activities for its membership. The ten members of ADA take part in a movie night, swim party, Barrier Awareness Day, and educational seminars and workshops. ADA consults and works with the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities for the purpose of ensuring compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504.

Interest

Black Student Union

— BSU Executive Board. Left to Right: Otis Bullock, Aubria Nance, Joy Stroman, Rayna Bond, Courtney Bonds, Joi Pickens, and Chris Hunt.

The Black Student Union serves as a vehicle committed to increasing the level of consciousness concerning the black experiences among the student community. Since its inception in the fall of 1970, BSU has sought to inspire, motivate, and unify the black student community, thus allowing the entire community to know of the roles black people have played on campus and throughout the world.

College Republicans

— The College Republicans seek to advance the principles of the Republican party, and to encourage student involvement in politics. They provide a voice for conservative students on campus through having meetings, debating issues, providing speakers (Bay Buchanan), attending conventions (College Republican State Convention and Conservative Political Action Conference), and working on Republican campaigns. The 20 members of the College Republicans were voted the best chapter in 1998 at the College Republican State Convention for Pennsylvania.

EARTH

→ EARTH (Environmental Association for Repairing of the Habitat) is devoted to increasing awareness of environmental issues through various on-campus and off-campus activities. Examples of activities include organizing and promoting an Earth Day Fair, cleaning up a stretch of the Brandywine River by canoe, and interacting with other local, regional, national, and international environmental groups.

Religious

Catholic Newman Student Association

— The 60 members of the Catholic Newman Student Association meet for a variety of spiritual, educational, and social programs. These include community service projects, prayer experiences, and discussion of contemporary issues in the light of church teaching. The CNSA strives to form a community in which Catholic and other interested students can grow in their understanding of the Catholic faith and live out that faith through friendship, service, and prayer.

Gospel Choir

— The dual purpose of the Gospel Choir is to minister the word of God through song and to provide West Chester University and the surrounding community with an opportunity to experience this form of music. The choir is shaped around the personality of its participants. Activities include performing for off-campus (other universities and churches) and on-campus engagements.

Hillel Jewish Student Union

— The Hillel Jewish Student Union wish to meet the needs of Jewish students at WCU and to assist non-Jewish students in better understanding Judaism. The 50 members of Hillel stress both social and religious events, which include Shabbat dinners, bagel brunches, guest speakers, holiday celebrations - such as Sukkot, Chanukah, and Passover - and off campus trips.

University Christian Fellowship

— University Christian Fellowship at West Chester University is a campus ministry that meets weekly for worship, Bible study, and fellowship. The ministry is based on the Bible and is nondenominational. The 25 members of UCF are caring believers in Jesus Christ who desire to share His love with their friends and fellow students and committed Christians who believe in living a godly lifestyle in obedience to the Word of God.

Service

Alpha Phi Omega

← The Omicron Upsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega national service fraternity is open to all men and women of the campus community. This national fraternity is dedicated to developing leadership and providing an opportunity for its members to serve their University and community. The Omicron Upsilon chapter conducts numerous service-oriented activities at West Chester.

Circle K

← Just started in the fall of 1994, Circle K is an international service organization focusing on service, leadership, and friendship. On a local level, it is a great opportunity to serve the community in many different ways as the 32 members gain leadership skills and have loads of fun. Their many service projects included: Halloween hayride at Oakbourne Mansion, arts and crafts projects with children of St. Christopher's Hospital, visited residents at Brandywine Rehabilitation, YMCA middle school dances, and a flower show with United Way. Circle K also participated in: restaurant fair, old fashioned Christmas, Bicentennial parade, Brian's Run, and Adopt-a-Block.

The Friars' Society

← The Friars' Society is an honorary service organization composed of sophomore, junior, and senior men who are invited into the society in recognition of outstanding leadership, honor, virtue, friendship, and character. The 29 members strive to serve West Chester University and the surrounding area through community service projects, which include Habitat for Humanity, Brian's Run, Adopt-a-Highway, Adopt-a-Block, community dinners, and campus clean-ups.

University Ambassadors

← The University Ambassadors provide a service to the Office of Admissions and the university; the 39 members promote West Chester University among past, present, and future students by providing weekly campus tours and representing the University at special events such as the open houses. Their membership consists of different majors, academic class status, campus involvement, etc.

Greek

— The Women's Panhellenic Council is West Chester University's largest women's organization on campus. WCU's Panhellenic is made up of a coalition of seven national sororities who strive for the common values of their founders. In the fall of 1999, the Panhellenic Council of WCU will be welcoming a new national organization to their family, and they are excited. The goals of the Panhellenic Council are the advancement of women, the building of sisterhood, and the strengthening of friendships through community service, leadership opportunities, and social interaction.

Women's Panhellenic Council

Alpha Sigma Tau

— The purpose of Alpha Sigma Tau is to promote the ethical, cultural, and social developments of its sisters. $\Lambda\Sigma\tau$ is not only a social organization; they also provide for their community, foundations, underprivileged kids, and the Greek organization as a whole. The 65 sisters sponsor Back to School Hoops 3-on-3 basketball tournament for the Amy Hashkowitz Foundation and fundraisers for the Pine Mountain Settlement School for underprivileged kids. It is their 30th anniversary here at WCU on March 29, 1999.

Alpha Xi Delta

— Alpha Xi Delta is a social sorority whose philanthropy is choose children. As well as volunteering every Saturday for Kindred House, the 60 sisters of $\Lambda\xi\Delta$ also participate in various events throughout the year, including Dance Marathon, the Clothesline Project, and any other Greek sponsored event. The goal of Alpha Xi Delta is inspiring women to reach their potential.

Zeta Tau Alpha

— Zeta Tau Alpha celebrated their 100th anniversary from when Zeta was founded nationally. The 65 sisters of ZTA sponsor the Bunny Hop, which is held in April; sisters jump on trampolines for 24 hours to raise money for the Susan G. Koman Breast Cancer Foundation. Their goals are to raise money for breast cancer research, and to build friendships through sisterhood.

Daedalus

— Daedalus is West Chester's magazine of the arts featuring short fiction, nonfiction, poetry, art, and photography from WCU students. Daedalus is produced by the students enrolled in English 275, a course offered each Spring.

Media Advisory Board

— The Media Advisory Board was established to address issues with WCU media organizations and members of the campus community. In addition to serving as a means of information sharing and mutual support among the various media organizations, the board's purpose is to serve as a forum for discussion of issues and problems affecting student media organizations and to recommend solutions.

The Quad

— Front Left to Right: Chris Rozzi, Kim Panaski, Donna Peterson, Kristin Kot. Back Left to Right: Chris Cameron, Adam Dye, Scott Myers, Adam Morris, Bryan Redding, Jeff Hoagland, Mike Neibauer, Bajeerah Lowe, Nikki Ismaili.

The Quad, the student newspaper of WCU, is published every Tuesday during the academic year. The 30 members are a combination of undergraduate and graduate students who are interested in gaining valuable experience in any aspect of journalism, including reporting, production, advertising, photography, and graphic design.

The Serpentine

— The Serpentine is a pictorial and written record of the year's University activities. The yearbook is a student-run organization. Included in the book are sections on student life, seniors, graduation, events, organizations, and athletics.

Musical

Concert Choir

— The West Chester University Concert Choir, conducted by Dr. David DeVenney, was founded at WCU in 1978. The 45 members perform a wide array of concerts through the year here at West Chester University. They are committed to excellence in the performance of the best choral music from the past four centuries. The choir tours annually, and past destinations have included major cities in the east and mid-western United States. Last year, the choir celebrated its twentieth anniversary with a week-long tour to California.

Tau Beta Sigma

— Tau Beta Sigma was founded at West Chester University on November 22, 1981. The national honorary band sorority prides itself in service to all the bands at the University. The twelve members of this organization dedicate their time and effort by providing enthusiasm, spirit, morale, and mostly service to any band or band activity. TBΣ sponsors activities, such as Jazz Fest, cavalcades, adopt-a-highway, and receptions for West Chester University bands.

Honor

Psychology - Psi Chi

† The Department of Psychology sponsors a chapter of this national honor society. Membership is by invitation, with scholarship as the major criterion. Psi Chi, an affiliate of both the American Psychological Association and the American Psychological Society, endeavors to advance the science of psychology and encourages superior scholarship in all academic fields, particularly in psychology.

Seniors at last. This journey, for most of us, began roughly four years ago when we were freshmen. We entered this school not knowing about the future that lay ahead of us. We were unsure of the path that would lead us to our final year at West Chester University. And now, we are again entering a world where the future is unknown. But, always remember, no matter where you go in life, we are all and forever will be alumni of West Chester University.

The steps leading up to graduation are many... Scheduling for that final semester of classes, applying for graduation, getting your senior portraits taken, taking that last final, picking up your cap and gown, graduation practice, and finally walking up to receive your hard earned diploma. And now you have graduated from college; for most of us, this is our biggest accomplishment so far in life as we know it. Congratulations to you all!

— Michelle P. Kee

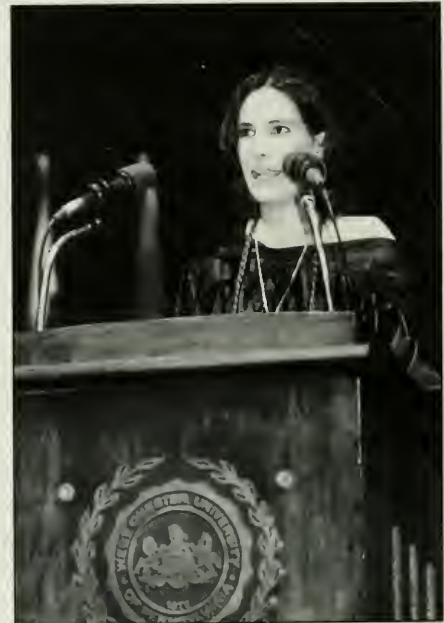

“When the commencement orator tells the graduating class that the world is their oyster, he should also explain the difficulty of cracking the shell.”

Closing

December

]- The best congratulations is always a hug from a friend or family member.
] Jessica Fannin sits in the middle of other December 1998 graduates and listens to the graduation ceremony.
]- A student speaks during the graduation.
] And finally, the time has arrived for the official sign of graduation, moving the tassel from the right to the left.

Graduation

↓— Jennifer Graf, a voice major, speaks to the December 1998 graduates.
↑ Dr. Madeleine Wing Adler, the president of West Chester University, welcomes everyone to the December 1998 graduation ceremony.
↓— Josh Decker and Lori Pressley play with the Wind Ensemble during the December graduation.
↓ One of the West Chester University faculty members receives a faculty recognition award.

May

‡— A West Chester University student, graduating with honors, looks content while she waits patiently for the ceremony to conclude.

‡— This student wears ribbons with her gown, as a sign that she was a member of the Abbe Society.

‡ Dr. Adler, WCU's President, gives a hand for the May 1999 graduates of West Chester University.

Graduation

† Zachary Cattell, 1998-1999 Student Government Association President, addresses the graduating class of May 1999.

— A May 1999 graduate gives a little smile upon receiving her diploma.

— Erica Hornung, a Communicative Disorders major, was one of many who graduated from WCU in May.

† One of the many messages - or last words before graduation - written with tape on someone's cap.

Dad and Michelle.	Tara Brenner - Tara - A long time coming, but you made it. And you showed them how to do it there at the end. We're so proud of you. Love to our graduate, Mom, Dad, William & Steffie.	Drew Calciano - Drew, Congratulations on your accomplishments as a student and athlete at West Chester University. It has been a long road but you have persevered. Go after what you want and commit yourself to making it happen! Love, Mom, Dad & Chris Calciano, Grandmom & Grandpop Poalino and Roe. Mare & Layne.
Chavonne Campbell - God is good. Your family is so proud of you. May love, happiness, & success surround you eternally. Love you always Mom.	Spencer Coursen - Our wonderful son has reached the Finish Line. Bravo! How proud we are. Now, on for the real challenges! We believe in you with all our hearts. So, go out and make this world a more beautiful place. With love, Mom & Dad.	Sara Craft - Dear Sara, We are thrilled about your graduation from WCU. We are proud both of what you did and also how you did it - with enthusiasm, positive attitude, confidence and fun. Love you! Mom, Dad and Alex Craft.
Jeniffer DeJesus - Jeniffer, Congratulations on a job well done. Now that you have many doors to choose from, open the one that will make you happy. We are so proud of you! We love you very much... Mom, Dad and Maida.	Laura DeLuca - Dear Laura, Chooch, Half Pint. We Love You. You have made us proud. Reach for the stars. Congratulations and best of luck. Keep smiling. Love Daddy, Mom, Carolyn and Nicholas and Grandmom too.	Dan DeLucia - Dan, Congratulations and God bless you. Please strive to continue your personal development throughout life as it is a never ending process. Plan your actions - it gives them meaning and substance. Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off your goals. Therefore embrace the challenge and refuse to fail. Love, Dad, Mom, Michelle & Michael.

Julie Dowburd - Julie, our Jewel. We have the many fond memories we have shared with you and we cherish your every being. Family and friends look forward to continuing to witness your wonderful achievements for others and contributions of yourself. Those who know you are fortunate to do so. Julie, you are our jewel...you are loved and priceless!!!	Jaclyn Drebes - Jaclyn, Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to great places! You're off and away! You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. Thanks for being you, Prissy. We love you, and are very proud. Dad, Mom, Ryan.	Bri Evarts - Congrats Bri! We're so proud of you. You've worked so hard. You went from professional student to professional. Don't forget us when you are a millionaire! You're a great guy, a wonderful son, brother and uncle. You deserve the very best. "Ya' done good." Love, Mom, Sue, Katie, Jamie & John.
Michelle L. Fitzgerald - Michelle, we will never forget the look on your face, that day in December, that you graduated. It was one none of us had ever seen before. The happiness and joy we saw on your face was well worth the wait. We are truly proud of you. Love Mom, Dad, Joe, Brad, Tom Mom, and Snickers.	Sheree (Mantz) Fitzgerald - Sheree, what a busy two years you've just gone through. A newlywed, a new home, and now your college graduation. What amazes me is that you still have your sanity! Congratulations. I love you and am so proud. Now relax a little and enjoy! Love Mom.	Celeste Foley - Celeste, We are so proud of your accomplishment at West Chester University. You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent woman with a smile for everyone. You are embarking on a new chapter in your life - Go live it and love it. Love your family, Mom, Ernest, Chip, Aunt Joan and Uncle Jerry.
Megan Elizabeth Fries - Dear Megan, We are all very proud of you and your accomplishments. Please go out and get a good job so you can pay your own bills. Congratulations! Much love, Mom, Dad, Billy, Jimmy & Jeff.	Amy L. Garver - Amy, you are the ideal daughter that most parents wish for. Your achievements and goals far exceeded our expectations. We know you will always reach any goal that you strive for. Amy, we love you very much and are so proud of you. Words cannot express what you mean to us.	Ann Genetti - Dearest Ann, We are so proud of your college accomplishments and rewards. Congratulations! May God be your focus all along life's superhighway. And do remember to stop often to enjoy the walks along the lovely little paths that He placed before you. May God be with you always. Love, Mom and family.
Carlye Gerhard - Carlye, You have accomplished much following your own style. The journey ahead has great potential. We wish you success, happiness, good fortune, and all that has special meaning to you. Congratulations. Love, Dad, Mom and Josh.	Debbie Gerken - Debbie, two things no one can ever take away from you are your education and memories. Bring them, and your usual enthusiasm, laughter and warmth to your next adventure. Be excited about the endless possibilities in your future! We are so proud of you! Love, Mom, Dad, Christine, Diane and Nana.	Shannon Givler - Shannon, I am "proud" of your accomplishments and "respect" you as the young woman you've become and I "love" you as my "only" daughter. May your future hold wonderful "learning experiences." Love Mom.

1998-1999 Serpentine Staff

The 1999 Serpentine of West Chester University, Volume LXXXIX, was printed in Dallas, Texas by Taylor Publishing Company. All senior portraits were taken by Carl Wolf Studios in Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania; all other photographs were taken by Carl Wolf Studios and Serpentine staff photographers.

I would like to thank everyone who worked on the publication of this book. Ed Patrick Jr., from our wonderful talks over lunch to answering any questions the staff might have - you are an excellent representative. Mike Durinzi and all of Carl Wolf's photographers - Drew, Chris, Ed, Bill, Bob, Rick - your pictures continue to make our book the success that it is. Mike Peich - you always find time for the yearbook even when you have other priorities - you are greatly appreciated for everything you do for us. Joe Cunningham, for finally getting us out of debt, and keeping our financial situation in check - you will be greatly missed.

Mell Josephs and the entire SSI business office personnel, from mailing out yearbooks to letting me use the postage machine for the postcards. Diane DeVestern, Mary Anderson, and the rest of the Media Advisory Board, for giving me a second opinion when I needed one. Dave Timmann, Mary Shaw, and the entire Sykes staff, for booking our rooms for senior portraits, and letting me stay in the office until 11:59pm so I could finish those last minute pages. Dr. Oliaro and SGA, especially the Finance Committee, for giving us a generous budget, and helping us pay off our debt. Dr. Adler, for giving the Serpentine your endless support. Steve McKiernan, for keeping us up to date on the LUVIM programs.

Robert Buddy Hill, who designed this year's cover. To the friends and family of the entire staff, for listening to our endless gripes about yearbook stuff.

And last, but certainly not least, the 1998-1999 Serpentine staff... Mendy, for doing everything that I needed, even if it be last minute, and for taking over the events section. Jo Anne, for being a wonderful business manager and friend; we will miss you. Jaime and Andrea - my roommates - for helping out on the yearbook with what little time you had. Christina, for typing all of those organization paragraphs and taking pictures. Jen, for helping out on the organizations section, as well as typing in the senior directory. Janet, for finishing up the academics section well into your summer break. Angie, for typing in the senior directory. Katie, for working yet again on the athletics section. The entire staff this year has been excellent, going above and beyond the call of duty to get things done. You will forever be in my heart. And after four years on the yearbook staff, I am happy to leave the yearbook in the hands of Katie and Angie as co-editors-in-chief, and Jen as business manager. Good luck to you three.

Thank you. — Serpentine Editor-in-Chief, Michelle P. Kee

Executive Board

Advisor

Michael A. Peich is a professor in the English department. In addition to being the advisor to the Serpentine Yearbook, Mike also runs the Aralia printing press in the Francis Harvey Green library. In this photo, Mike Peich chats with Michelle at a reception to introduce the 1998 yearbook.

— Ed Patrick Jr. is the Serpentine's representative from Taylor Publishing Company.

— Mike Durinzi is the vice president of Carl Wolf Studios, the photography studio that the Serpentine works with.

— Joe Cunningham is the Serpentine's business advisor from Student Services Incorporated.

Academics

Jaime Davis is a junior Elementary Education major from West Chester, Pennsylvania. Janet Cassel is a sophomore Elementary Education major from Perkasio, Pennsylvania; Janet will be returning to the 1999-2000 staff.

Student Life

Andrea Schoedler is a senior Elementary Education major from Alburts, Pennsylvania.

Organizations

Christina Meehan is a freshman Studio Arts major from East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, and she will be returning to the staff next year.

Athletics

Katie Shaulis is a sophomore Forensic Chemistry and Biology major from Somerset, Pennsylvania; this is her second year on the staff. Katie will be returning as the 1999-2000 Co-Editor-in-Chief.

Seniors

Angie Price is a sophomore Special Education major from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; this is her second year on the staff. Angie will be returning as the 1999-2000 Co-Editor-in-Chief. Jen Corzine is a freshman undeclared major from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Jen will also be returning as next year's Business Manager.

Events

In addition to serving as Assistant Editor-in-Chief, Mendy Brown also served as the Events section editor.

— One of the perks of being on the yearbook staff is that two staff members have the opportunity each year to ride in a helicopter to take aerial photographs. This year, Mendy and Michelle rode in the helicopter, compliments of Carl Wolf Studios and Sterling Helicopters.

A Final Farewell...

To the graduating classes of 1998 and 1999. "Listening to your heart, finding out who you are, is not simple. It takes time for the chatter to quiet down. In the silence of "not doing," we begin to know what we feel. If we listen and hear what is being offered, then anything in life can be our guide." Goodbye and good luck to you.

*1998-1999 Serpentine Editor-in-Chief,
Michelle P. Kee*
